Appraisals For Mail In 2 Weeks

Granite City businessmen received good news and bad news yesterday on the proposed downtown mall.

At a luncheon held at Charlie's Restaurant, Appraiser J. P. Bentley said his task is almost complete and the appraisals of Central Business District property will be in the hands of the city government within two weeks.

Cases still are about as expected—$64 a front foot on most 19th Street and Niedringhaus Avenue property and half that in areas less directly affected by the mall.

Disappointment was voiced when time projections were provided by Harold B. Theerman of the Harland Bartholomew & Associates planning firm and Attorney William Brandt.

At best, court action will take two months, preparation of detailed construction plans three months and actual construction another four to six months, it was brought out.

Combined with the remaining work on the appraisals, it was concluded that full completion of the project may be almost exactly a year away—February 1974.

Since there are identified and unidentified objectors, filing of various motions and appeals could consume additional months.

Despite concern over the time involved, there was considerable enthusiasm among the 30 persons present for proceeding with the mall installation as soon as possible, utilizing the assistance of the city.

Drainage Plan Okayed, State To Seek Bids

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer

An agreement between Granite City and the Illinois Division of Waterways which will permit construction of a new drainage line to serve the Doherty Slough area of Nameoki Township and northeast Granite City was approved by the City Council Monday night.

The proposal, which involves use of a city stormwater sewer line, was accepted by a 12 to 1 roll call vote after John Guillou, chief engineer of the waterways division spoke to the council and explained terms of the agreement.

Alderman Walter Nann of the Fifth Ward cast the only dissenting vote. Gerald Parmley, alderman of the Sixth Ward and principal opponent of the Doherty drainage plan, was absent.

Guillou told the Press-Record following the council session that bids for the Doherty drainage line will be called March 1, to be opened March 26.

If a satisfactory bid is received, Guillou said, construction of the line should begin about mid-April. The council approved the same agreement it rejected in its Feb. 5 meeting when Parmley halted the reading of the agreement and told the aldermen the proposal failed to include two provisions required by the city before permitting use of the Amos Avenue stormwater line as part of the drainage plan.

At that time the text of the agreement was not read in full and the agreement was referred to City Attorney Leon Scroggins to take up the question of the two stipulations with the waterways division.

Guillou told the council Monday night that the agreement which had not been read in full included a provision that the city retain control over the pumps that would carry Doherty Slough drainage through the Amos Avenue line to Wabash Avenue and into the Nameoki Ditch.

This was one of the two stipulations asked by the council when it agreed in mid-January to go along with the state in the drainage improvement.

The other requirement was a "hold harmless" clause which would relieve the city of liability in the event of flood damages caused by Doherty drainage waters overflowing Nameoki Ditch.

"We included in this agreement the provision for city control of the pumps, but I'm sure you can see that we couldn't grant both points," Guillou told the council Monday night.

"If you control the pumps, then we couldn't be held responsible for damages," Guillou added.

On the other hand, Guillou said, if the city preferred the is shown in these dramatic pictures, the two after-dark scenes by Fischer Photos and the others by Press-Record staff photographers. Police with guns ready Monday afternoon surrounded an apartment building at 1630 East 23rd St., the corner structure at the lower left.

At lower right, one of the three hostages, Miss Judy Wood, the "go-between" contact, confers with Assistant Chief George Teller (standing), Lieut. Everett Kelly (kneeling near Teller) and Granite City Police Chief Ronald Veizer.

Patient Police Prevail

Patience—combined with willingness to act decisively at an appropriate time—proved to be a winning combination for law enforcement officers Monday in their difficult task of taking James M. Williams into custody.

Early Monday afternoon, police made repeated attempts to talk Williams out of the house. Chief of Police Ronald Veizer and Lt. Everett Kelly of the Granite City department took turns on the loudspeaker of one of the squad cars.

"Williams, release your hostages. Let them get in the middle of this?" "Let your hostages come out the front door. You're bucking a loser, and you know it. Come on out," Kelly broadcast.

One Granite City policeman, asked what would be done to bring Williams out, replied at 3:15 p.m., "Wait. Patience is the name of the game."

Veizer then broadcast, "Williams, hurry and come out. Those hostages should not be involved in this. Send them out."

When that failed, the chief said, "Send out the lady, we talked to earlier. Let me talk to her again. We may back off."

Miss Judy Wood emerged, talked briefly with Veizer and then returned inside. "She looks scared half to death," one officer commented.

Veizer obviously was in full control of the efforts to end the stalemate. On the police band

An armed fugitive, holding three hostages in an apartment at 1630 E. 23rd St., held police at bay for 4½ hours Monday before he surrendered at 7:15 p.m. The total ordeal for the trio lasted more than eight hours.

The suspect was identified as James Michael Williams, 24, of Ferguson, Mo., for whom Granite City police had forged warrants from St. Louis County.

Officers surrounded the apartment building after Williams was seen momentarily leaving the apartment and then returning to it at 2:40 p.m. Monday by Police Lt. Everett Kelly.

Other squad cars were dispatched to the scene, and Police Chief Ronald Veizer said Williams was ordered to surrender.

Veizer added that Williams informed officers that he was armed and had the hostages, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Roberts, who reside in the apartment, and Miss Judy Wood, who lives in an apartment on the second floor.

The three were rescued, but not without a nerve-jangling, cold and dangerous vigil. Chief Veizer, Lt. Kelly and Assistant Chief George Teller held a dialogue with Williams periodically by use of a public address system. The apartment had no telephone.

Williams permitted Miss Wood to serve as a "go-between" and she relayed messages, going out to talk to officers and then returning to the apartment several times.

Shortly before 7:15 p.m., Chief Veizer said, Williams and the hostages were barricaded in a long closet leading to a bathroom. A couch was propped lengthwise against the door.

Williams allegedly fired three shots, with the bullets going through the couch and lodging into the ceiling. No one was injured.

At that point police decided to break down the door to the apartment, and ordered Williams to surrender after they broke the door.

Williams proved to be armed with a .25 caliber automatic and a .32 caliber revolver.

He passed the weapons out and was taken into custody, being led away amid flashing camera lights.

Williams had been involved in a somewhat similar incident previously in Pinckneyville, the chief said.

He first was charged with resisting arrest and reckless conduct, but the charges were amended Tuesday to read unlawful restraint, unlawful use of a weapon and resisting arrest.

Williams was arraigned Tuesday afternoon in Edwardsville and was held at the Madison County Jail.

Chief Veizer said he will be held here until final disposition of the charges, when he will be made available to St. Louis County authorities who also wanted him for jumping bail.

After Williams surrendered, Roberts—a diabetic who suffered from a heart condition—was released.

New Bank, 'Colonial,' Is Planned

Plans for a new Granite City bank were announced at the annual meeting of shareholders of First Granite City National Bank on Tuesday; 85,539 of the 100,000 outstanding shares were represented.

Directors elected for the First Bank were Harold R. Fischer, Howard W. Kaseberg, Paul H. Lichtenberger, Howard M. Love, Samuel E. Pershall, Samuel E. Pershall Jr., Carl A. Rant, John W. Reese, Dr. John S. Rendleman, Nicholas P. Veeder, Melvin C. Wilmmsmeyer and Marion E. Wilson.

Chairman Paul Lichtenberger told the assembled shareholders that an application for the issuance of a charter for a new bank, to be known as the Colonial Bank of Granite City, had been filed with the commissioner of banks and trust companies of the state of Illinois on Friday, Feb. 16.

"The proposed location of the new bank will be in the northeast section of Granite City in the center of the rapid residential and commercial expansion which has occurred in that area," he said.

"This is in keeping with the trend that has developed in banking in the past few years — of taking the services where the people are."

"The new bank will be operated independently of First Bank but will have an affiliate connection. Present stockholders of First Bank will be given an opportunity to purchase shares in the new bank on a pro-rata basis."

Colonial Bank will have a total capitalization of $1,000,000, divided as follows—capital stock $400,000, surplus $400,000 and operating reserves $200,000.

There will be 40,000 shares of $10 par value stock outstanding, to be offered at a price of $25 per share.

Organizers signing the application for the new charter were Dr. George T. Wilkins, Vasil Tarpoft, Henry W. Ross, John W. Reese and P. H. Lichtenberger.

Commenting on the results of operations of First Granite City National Bank for 1972, Lichtenberger said "As indicated in

Bicyclists, Curious Join Hazardous Wait

By VALERIE EVENEDEN

Flushing a man holding hostages from a virtually impenetrable position without causing harm to his innocent captives or hordes of curious bystanders is a deadly serious business. Area law enforcement officers tackled the problem in a professional manner Monday afternoon.

The incident at the Home Apartments in the 1600 block of East 23rd Street lasted for several tense hours, culminating in the surrender to police of James Michael Williams, 24, of Ferguson, Mo.

To one at the scene, the public's reaction to a taut situation had all the aspects of a threatening circus, mixed with an unexpected Roman holiday.

The caution needed in potentially dangerous surroundings was, for the most part, ignored by curiosity seekers.

Under similar conditions elsewhere, inquisitive spectators have been wounded and killed when shots were exchanged between beleaguered gunmen and police.

The excitement generated by an unusual circumstance in Granite City, plus an opportunity for close hand observation of police action, produced almost a festive mood among spectators.

Some of the effects noted during the lengthy pre-surrender period were bizarre:

Strangers walked up and confided the latest rumors, including "They have an escaped murderer cornered in there!" "Can't you tell by the smell that the police have thrown tear-gas canisters inside the building?" Neither point was true.

BURGLAR TOOLS FOUND

Madison police found what they believe are burglar tools behind a home in the 1400 block of Third Street in Madison at 9:40 a.m. Tuesday.

Among the items found was a home-made rope, pipe and wood ladder which could have been used to gain entrance to the roof of a commercial building. Also recovered were a flashlight, hand saw and screwdriver.

VANDAL CAUGHT

An 8-year-old boy who threw a bottle through an east window of American Legion Post 799, 1043 Douglas St., Venice, at 4:05 p.m. Tuesday, was caught at the scene and Venice police charged him with vandalism. The charge was dropped when the damages were paid.

Levee Split Due to Taxes, Not Politics -- Supervisor

Mrs. William Felton of Namecki Township, who has been described as opposing division of the former levee and sanitary district into Madison and St. Clair districts, was advised Tuesday by Namecki Township Supervisor Louis Whitsell of his belief that politics have had no part in the plan for new districts.

Supervisor Whitsell related, "I thought it was my duty to inform you how the idea to split the East Side Levee District into two separate districts came about."

"During the rains of 1968 and 1969, citizens became aware that the New Haven Manor subdivision was built on a swampy area. I knew this myself, as I was raised here and went fishing and wading there many times. A gross error was made by the county when a subdivision was allowed to be built."

"The citizens were up in arms, blaming the township, the city, the state and even the federal government. But it was too late to blame anyone. It was time to solve the problem that indeed existed."

"Through our many meetings and studies, it became obvious that the East Side Levee and Sanitary District was the only government unit that had the statutory duty to provide drainage on a township level and, unfortunately, the levee district was having its own legal problems at that time."

"Our citizens' committee first had thought of abolishing the levee district, but who would provide drainage?"

"Also, we are still paying taxes to retire the old bonds to pay off the old Mississippi River levees, so taxes would still continue."

"It became apparent to our citizens' committee that although we of Madison County paid almost half of the taxes to the district, the monies were spent in St. Clair County. The employees were from St. Clair, the equipment and facilities were in St. Clair County and we got a small 'bone' thrown to us now and then," Whitsell continued.

"The Namecki Township Citizens Committee then decided to petition the state legislature to split the district because of the obvious taxation without representation."

"We ran copies of the petition at our own expense and delivered them to every municipality."

"After the thing caught hold, we faded into the background and began to seek state and federal help for Dobrey Slough, which we have been very successful with for a project of that size."

"We are confident that the Illinois Division of Waterways, in spite of all the setbacks, drain Dobrey Slough."

"Your statement that the split was motivated by political forces is not true. It was motivated by citizens who woke up to the facts."

"Furthermore, we believe that to continue the present levee district would be a mistake unless we are allowed to vote for each member."

"Under the present system, we might as well not hold an election at all in Madison County. Three-to-two means that the majority of the members will do the most for the people who elect them."

"I am writing not to criticize your conviction, but to inform you that we have other convictions. However, if you or anyone else can come up with the answer, I will be the first to volunteer my services to help in any way that I can."

Venice Rejects Bi-State Plea For Fund Aid

The Venice City Council rejected Tuesday night a request by the Bi-State Development Agency that the city allot 10% of its federal revenue sharing funds to the Bi-State Transit System to help meet deficits confronting the transportation system.

Venice is among 108 cities and villages which Bi-State is asking to allot revenue sharing funds to help meet the transit system deficit. The Bi-State agency has announced bus service will end April 1 unless financial help is received from some source.

John Ervin, alderman of the Venice Third Ward, told the council, "You all know my feelings on the bus system. All it has is a paper plan and really doesn't give any effective service. Bi-State gives 80% of its service to Missouri and 20% to Illinois."

Council members agreed that the Bi-State agency should "dispose of its other profitable projects and use the money for transit operation if it wants to stay in the transportation business."

Mayor John E. Lee noted that Venice is in default of B bonds for McKinley bridge, and that "it would not be a wise move for us to give 10% of our revenue sharing funds to Bi-State."

The mayor also told the council that the U. S. Department of Transportation has informed him by letter that final approval of plans for relocation of Broadway and construction of approaches from the Broadway underpass to McKinley Bridge is not likely until December this year.

He said he is attempting to obtain a waiver of an environmental declaration which the government has a required because a small sector of Lee Park is to be used in the roadway operation.

Luchini said no admission will be charged but volunteers will be on hand to accept donations to the Heart Fund.

"A parade has been planned to begin the event through the village of Pontoon Beach, with many horse-back riders and a circus clown to entertain the public," Elliott said.

County Zoning Board Approves Hospital Bid

The Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals recommended approval of a special use permit to construct a 127-bed hospital on a 50-acre site between Collinsville and Edwardsville during a hearing Wednesday morning at Edwardsville.

It is subject to final approval by the Madison County Board which will meet on March 14.

The request for the permit was made for Southwestern Illinois Health Facilities, Inc. by Daniel A. Hicks, executive vice-president, who spoke on the proposal. About 50 persons attended the hearing. There were no objectors.

Six members of the seven-member board, at the hearing voted approval after considering the need for a hospital and availability of sewage facilities. The hospital, to be constructed at a cost of $6,400,000, including a government loan of $1,534,000, will be located in a wedge on Route 162 east of Route 150. It will be known as the Oliver C. Anderson Hospital and will employ about 215 persons.

Contract for New School Roof Awarded at Venice

By DONNA HARTWICK
Press-Record Staff Writer

The Venice Board of Education accepted a bid of Biebel Roofing Co. of Belleville for $2,880 to install a 15-year asbestos roof on the Venice High School building, at a board meeting Monday night.

Other bids submitted on the same specifications were from Geissler Roofing Co., Belleville, for $3,586, and King Home Improvement Co., East St. Louis, for $4,694.

Superintendent John Pier spoke to the board on other improvements needed at the schools, listing estimates on specific projects.

Repair of blackout curtains in classrooms and rods in both the grade schools and high school by Lombardi Paints & Interiors, Inc. was approved at a cost of $405.

Information and prices will be submitted by Lombardi for replacing stage curtains with a flameproof fabric at a later meeting.

Also discussed were plans for replacement of parts of the gymnasium floor, sanding and refinishing and repairing an air conditioner in the band room.

Replacement of fuse boxes and wiring in the gym area of the high school also was discussed.

Tentative plans to install a hood over the grill and deep fryer in the school cafeteria, and to purchase new kitchen equipment, to replace obsolete items now in use, were explained by Pier. The equipment would be financed with funds to be received from the state.

Since the school feeds 80% of its students, the state usually will provide 75% of the cost of such improvements, he said.

Supt. Pier also informed the board that $19,653 had been received as partial payment on refunded tax charges from the county treasurer's office. An additional $6,021 still is due.

The board discussed sending notices to teachers and instructors at both Lincoln Technical Center and Venice Schools that some might be dismissed in the event that federal and state funds should be discontinued for Lincoln Center.

Although there is no indication that such a move is eminent, it is normal procedure to inform all personnel of the possibility because federal and state officials do not set a definite time limit for such programs.

Mrs. Porter, Mother Of 3 GC Men, Dies

Mrs. Mabel Porter, 60, of Rural Route One, Pinckneyville, Ill., mother of three Granite Cityans, died at 4:30 p.m. Monday at Pinckneyville Community Hospital following a six-month illness.

She is survived by her husband, Henry Porter; five sons, Richard, John and Robert Stanton, all of Granite City; Mark Stanton of New Baden, Ill.; and Roger Stanton, Robin Air Force Base, Ga.; a daughter, Mrs. Mabel Browning of Vandalia, Ill., and 19 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the First Christian Church in Pinckneyville with the Rev. John Lamb, pastor of Central Baptist Church in Granite City, officiating. Burial was in Mueller Cemetery, Pinckneyville.

was accepted as a substitute aide. The board was notified of a letter from the Teachers Union Local 965 asking to re-open negotiations for the 1973-74 school year.

Monthly bills approved for Venice Lincoln Technical Center totaled $19,194 and for Venice School Educational Fund, $3,269; building fund, $441, and transportation $2,856.

A junior college application for Willie Harmon also was granted. Mrs. Robert Killian

Soybean Germination Test Available from State Lab

By WARREN W. BUNDY
U. of I. Extension Adviser

Damage to soybean seed by diseases and weather has caused more farmers than usual to ask how to get seed tested for germination.

Farmers who plan to use their own soybeans for seed in 1973 should test them for germination and adjust seeding rates accordingly.

One laboratory available to farmers and seedsmen is the Illinois Seed Laboratory of the Department of Agriculture.

During the period of Jan. 1 to April 30 the charge for a seed sample is $2 per germination test. If the purity test is requested, there is an additional $2 charge.

From May 1 to Dec. 30 there is no charge to farmers for up to three samples of soybeans, cereal grains, alfalfa and clover and for one sample of bluegrass, brome, ryegrass or fescue.

For germination tests send one pint of soybeans or grains one cup of fescue or similar size seed, or one-half cup of small seeds such as alfalfa. For a purity test, double the amount.

Information to be given is name and address of owner, kind of seed and variety if known, year grown, month of harvest, where grown, and kind of test desired—germination only, purity only, or both. Send samples to Illinois Seed Laboratory, Division of Plant

Industry, Emerson Building, State Fairgrounds, Springfield, Illinois.

Farmers are urged to submit seed samples early, and it's already getting late. Laboratory congestion and delays are unavoidable when too many request laboratory service near seeding time.

A few Madison county farmers report they already have their clover seeded in winter wheat. Many wait until early March to seed clover in wheat.

Clover and alfalfa are seeded on a prepared seedbed as early in March or April that the seedbed can be prepared.

They are planted in spring oats when the oats are planted.

Baled alfalfa hay sold at an average of $35 a ton on Jan. 15, up $3 a ton from the same date a year ago, according to the Illinois Cooperative Crop Reporting Service.

Other baled hay averaged $30 a ton, also up $3 from a year ago.

In the United States alfalfa hay averaged $45.80 a ton on Jan. 15, up $5.80 a ton from a year ago.

The ten highest producing herds in Madison County Dairy Herd Improvement in January are owned by Harold and Carl Baumann, Clarence Iberg, Vernon Warnecke, Henry Zoeller, John J. Hediger, George Daiber, Harold Klenke, Marvin Sille, Heepke Bros., and Daro Holstein Farm.

The herd of Harold and Carl Baumann was high for the month with 2.00 pounds of butterfat per cow per day. The Baumann herd of 59 cows averaged 52.8 pounds of milk per cow per day with an average butterfat test of 3.79.

ALL THE FISH YOU CAN EAT FRIDAY, $1.29 AT GRANTS

Mrs. Innes Delighted That Other War Prisoners Are Returning; No Definite Word Yet on Her Husband

By VALERIE EVENDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer

"This must be the hardest time of all for Sandy," a friend of Mrs. Sandra (Noth) Innes commented this week.

"Seeing all the men returning home and the happy faces of their families must strike very deep," she added.

Mrs. Innes, whose husband, Lieutenant Roger B. Innes, still is missing in action in North Vietnam, is genuinely delighted to see the happiness evident in the faces of families reunited with the former prisoners of war.

"I am grateful for all the POWs who have stepped off the planes and will continue to be grateful for all those who are continuing to return home," Mrs. Innes said last night in an appearance before the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club.

The young woman also expressed gratitude to club members and fellow townspeople...

"For all the help I personally have received over the years," Mrs. Innes spoke to BPW members a few years ago and enlisted their aid in writing letters to North Vietnamese leaders asking for an accounting of U.S. servicemen held prisoner.

Many of the families — whose loved ones she has watched on television arriving at Clark Air Base in the Philippines or at state-side bases — Mrs. Innes knows personally.

She has met and worked closely with the wives, parents, sisters and brothers at state and national meetings of the National League of Families of American Prisoners and Missing in Southeast Asia.

The organization has accomplished much to keep Americans aware that U.S. servicemen were held captive in North Vietnam or that their whereabouts never have been confirmed.

As an official delegate of the MIA-POW families, Mrs. Innes traveled with more than 160 wives and relatives of missing and imprisoned American servicemen on a special mission to the Paris Peace Conference in France, Geneva, Switzerland and other world capitals in May 1971.

Purpose of the pilgrimage was to seek support from all countries for provisions of the Geneva Convention to be upheld by North Vietnam and to ask the North Vietnamese and National Liberation Front peace delegations for a firm commitment regarding release of the U.S. prisoners and that the way could be cleared for withdrawal of U.S. troops from Indochina.

Nearly two years later, part of the dream has been realized that spurred the American families to meet with international legal experts in Geneva.

The authorities represented more than 30 countries.

Those making the trip were able to confer with personnel of the International Red Cross, see confrontations of the enemy delegations in Paris and attempt to enlist the support of charge d'affaires at Soviet, Cuban, Polish and Spanish embassies.

Most of those traveling to Europe on the one-week whirlwind round of capital cities paid their own expenses, including Mrs. Innes, her sister-in-law, Miss Gail Innes of Chicago, and Mrs. Carol Hassmeyer of Belleville, whose husband, Captain Bernard Hassmeyer, a U.S. Marine Corps pilot, has been missing in action since his plane was shot down over South Vietnam on September 11, 1970.

Capt. Hassmeyer, the father of a small son, also is still listed as missing in action.

Both area women are hopeful, but realistic in their approach to the possibility of a tragic outcome of their long years of waiting.

Mrs. Innes said that for the families of servicemen whose dossiers in the Pentagon are marked "MIA," the anxious vigil will extend over many months.

The painstaking procedure of confirmation of the missing in action may involve visiting grave sites of those servicemen reported by the North Vietnamese as having been killed or those who have died while captives.

The international peace-keeping force may have to send personnel deep into jungle areas to confirm the location of a crashed plane, it was learned.

Mrs. Innes and her husband were married in August 1966.

The officer volunteered for service in the U.S. Navy Air Corps in October 1965. Five months after he graduated from Culver-Stockton College at Canton, Mo.

Since his Navy aircraft disappeared over North Vietnam in December 1967, no word has been received about Lt. Innes or the pilot of the two-man plane.

He had arrived off the coast of Vietnam on a U.S. aircraft carrier just five days before his plane failed to return from an overland mission.

Mrs. Innes, who attended Culver-Stockton College following graduation from Granite City High School in 1964, decided last summer to resume educational studies and enrolled as a fulltime student at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Press Freedom to Be Topic of TV Special

KETC-TV, St. Louis' public television station, will examine the issue of the freedom of the press versus society's need for privacy in a special production assisted by a $7,860 grant from the Missouri State Committee for the Humanities.

The two-hour program, tentatively titled "The Fourth Estate: Servant or Master?", is slated for production this spring.

The special will examine the controversy between print and broadcast journalists' right to freedom of speech and the increasing demands by the government for secrecy and the identification of press sources. Under the supervision of James Barnes, programming director at Channel 9, the production will consist of two one-hour programs or one two-hour program.

The documentary-style format may include dramatic vignettes, along with a live phone-in segment from the KETC-TV studios to allow instant response from viewers.

The services of Dr. John Rider, chairman of the Department of Mass Communications at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, have been secured by KETC-TV as chief academic consultant for the project.

According to producer-director Tom McDonough, the project will require four months of research, writing and production. The project is supported through the Missouri State Committee for the Humanities by a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities in Washington, D. C., a federal agency created by an Act of Congress in 1965.

Wintertime Pruning Of Flowering Shrubs

Spring weather and free afternoons are the perfect combination to prime flowering shrubs.

The rule is to prune spring flowering shrubs in the summer and summer flowering shrubs in the spring. With complicated rules like that, you may decide to go fishing instead.

Spring flowering shrubs like forsythia, flowering quince, honeysuckle, lilac climbing roses and pyracantha develop flower buds in the fall. Clusters of buds, or cherry-like buds, are the dormant flowers waiting for spring.

Wintertime pruning of these shrubs will improve the growth and vigor of the plant and help remove some overwintering diseases and insects. But it removes the spring flowers! Only summertime pruning, after bloom, will remove old wood, invigorate the plant and increase flowering the next season.

Summer blooming shrubs like tea roses and alder (rose of Sharon) develop flower buds in the spring and benefit from winter pruning.

In spite of the best way or the best time, you may find yourself in a now-or-never situation. If summertime pruning seems to lose out to grass cutting or gardening, then the consequences may be worth it. Reduced bloom this spring will occur, but improved growth, good foliage and better bloom next year can be a worthwhile risk.

If you need more details on pruning deciduous shrubs call or write the Coop. Extension Service in Belleville at 233-1047 (Edwardsville at 652-2200) for a copy of Circular 103, "Pruning Evergreens and Deciduous Trees and Shrubs."

assessment method through municipal and court sanction of the improvement.

Henry R. Gabriel, who presided, commented that "once financing is assured and a contract has been awarded for detailed plans, the remaining time will pass rapidly." He has headed the Downtown Development Committee of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce.

Hosts were Paul Lichtenberger and Henry D. Karandjeff. Participants included Mayor Donald Partney, City Council members, Chamber President Chester L. Baker and retail store owners and operators.

Mayor Partney outlined steps taken by the city government to expedite the plan and pledged continued support of the plan.

It calls for southbound traffic on 19th Street, with angle parking, and partial interruption of vehicular traffic for two blocks on Niedringhaus Avenue.

Plans for one-way travel on some streets were discussed and are to be reviewed at public hearings.

It was noted that federal funds under the "Topics" program are expected to be available for awarding of contracts before June 30 on intersection improvements and synchronized traffic controls along Madison Avenue at 20th, Niedringhaus, 23rd and 27th, and also possibly the Nameoki-Feeling-Johnson Roads corridor, where further right-of-way acquisition will be needed.

Theaterman said Wednesday the "Topics" program probably could be expanded to include the Niedringhaus-Edison Avenue intersection.

Two days earlier, Attorney Brandt submitted his resignation as special city attorney for the mail project during Monday's City Council meeting.

The resignation by letter said "various circumstances have arisen which make it impossible for me to continue" in the position.

Brandt was appointed attorney by the Board of Local Improvements to handle legal procedures necessary for appraisal of the property, a special assessment bond issue and application to the circuit court for approval of the project.

News Notes

Nasir Named
Goals of the past 29 years, we find a 1943 goal of $55,000 compared to the 1972 goal of $410,000.

"We also find the last time the goal was reached was in 1966 with a goal of $348,500 and $350,000 in collections.

"We have increased our goals $111,000 over the past nine years—a strong pace and a difficult challenge in the face of some adverse economic conditions locally.

"This goal has been increased only $5,000 from the 1970 to the 1972 campaign. Our pledges and collections for the 1972-73 campaign exceed only slightly our 1965 goal of $335,000.

"Possibly we, as the agencies, have expanded too swiftly over the years in attempting to do a better job of the community.

"At this point we may need to look very closely into the possibility of effecting additional economies in the programs.

"Unfortunately, the demands on our agencies are greatest when the local economy is suffering because of the most difficult times for solicitations."

The annual drive report showed $348,500 raised, compared to a $313,000 campaign.

Breakdowns of a amount raised and the percentages of the division or section goals follow:

Industrial firms, $106,065 or 84.8%.

Commercial—$35,226 or 70.4%.

Professional—$11,459 or 72.1%.

Public service—$14,815 or 64.4%.

Residential and clubs—$7,096 or 116.7%.

Madison—$2,070 or 121.4%.

VE contributors elected to the board: Mrs. Valerie Stevens, Don Treder and Nick Vasiloff to one-year terms and Carl Harrison to a two-year term.

Three-year terms went to the Rev. James Anfin, James Aron, Mrs. Helen Bischoff, Dr. Wallace Brylak, Mrs. Judy Dailey, W. E. Dennis, Robert Edmonds, Barry Friedman, Andrew Gitchie, E. J. Harper, Mrs. Irene Haug.

Tough Competition Awaits Warriors In Final Leg to State Mat Tourney

Granite City High School wrestlers will be pitted against many of the best grapplers in the state tomorrow and Saturday in the sectional meet at Wood River.

It had been mistakenly reported the event would be held here. Activities will begin at 6 p.m. tomorrow in the Wood River High School gym. The first and quarter-final rounds are to be completed Friday night. Action will resume at 1 p.m. Saturday with semifinal and wrestle-back rounds. The championship bouts will begin at 7 p.m.

Champions and runners-up at the sectional will advance to the state finals the following weekend at the University of Illinois. Granite City stands third among the 39 schools entered at Wood River in the number of wrestlers who qualified with nine. Centralia tops the list after qualifying its entire 12-man team and Jacksonville is second with 11 wrestlers qualified.

Belleville East and Springfield Southeast have seven entries each, Cahokia and Lincoln (Ill.) have six each and schools with five wrestlers each are Belleville West, Carbondale, Hillsboro, Lawrenceville, Springfield, Lanphier and Springfield. Warrior entries are Pat MacMillan (98 pounds), Phil Lapinski (105), John Niebur (112), Kerry Johnson (119), Dennis Ragan (126), Dan Heath (132), Dave Rushing (138), Ken Nolen (145) and Jack Schooley (157). All were champions at the Alton district meet except Rushing who finished second in his weight class after returning to the lineup from the injured list.

First-round lineups were prepared Tuesday night by the pairing committee at Wood River and the six champions in each weight class drew for first round byes. There are four byes in each class.

Of the eight Warrior champions, six drew byes. Granite City Coach Bill Schmitt was unhappy over the byes. "You usually meet your weakest opposition in the first round and pick up team points. We stand to lose six to 12 team points by getting so many byes," he explained. Teams receive one point for each win and another point for each win and another sitting on the bench the first round while everyone else is wrestling. They do much better if they can get out there and work it out in an easy match," the coach added.

The first round pairings for Warriors who did not draw byes pit Ragan against Jim McReynolds of Carmi, Rushing against Larry Foster of Jacksonville and Schooley against Vern Hasley of Lincoln (Ill.).

All others will be on the bench for the first round. MacMillan in the second round will meet the winner of the first-round match between Dennis Carlock of Hillsboro and Ron Baumgartner of Mount Carmel. Lapinski will watch Bruce Mitchell of Belleville West and George Allsop of Mount Pleasant wrestle the first round and will meet the winner in the second round.

Quentin Westbrook of Centralia and Mike Neuman of Pleasant Plains will meet in the first round for the honor of challenging Niebur.

Johnson will meet the winner of a match between Curt Parrish of Carbondale and Chrys Harrison of Springfield.

Heath will be pitted in the second round against the winner of the match between Joe Sullivan of Lawrenceville and Vayle Johnson of Jacksonville.

Nolan will watch the bout between Steve Knewitz of Carbondale and Jeff Chevr of Lanphier and will meet the winner in the second round.

Winners and runners-up at Wood River will meet their equivalents from the Belleville, Barbanks, East Moline, Evanson, Normal and Northlake sectionals in the state finals.

Admission to the sectional at Wood River will be $1 for adults and 50-cents for students showing their school identification cards.

Student-Faculty Game at Grigsby
Grigsby Junior High School students will meet the faculty in a basketball game at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the school gym. In the first quarter of the game the Girls Athletic Association members will meet the women faculty members. The final three quarters will be played by the school's lettermen and men faculty members.

Admission in advance is 75 cents for students and $1 for adults. Tickets at the door will be $1 for students and $1.25 for adults.

Registration Set For YMCA Soccer

It's soccer registration time again for boys 8 through 13 who want to play in the YMCA program this spring.

Soccer action will get under way the first week in March, and boys interested may call the local 'Y' at 876-7200 or Ruben Mendoza at 492-5300 for information.

The public is invited. Tickets will be available at the door at $2 which will cover the cost of food and refreshments.

Wilson to Wrestle In Regional Meet

Illinois State University wrestling coach Bob Koehler believes he has six athletes capable of placing in the NCAA eastern regionals Friday and Saturday in Cincinnati.

The regional is for all schools east of the Mississippi River who will not qualify for the nationals through a conference tournament.

Each school is permitted one entry in each weight event. The first three places in each weight division advance to the nationals which will be held March 8 at Seattle, Wash.

"We're sort of in a quandary at 190 pounds where we've got two good ones," said Koehler. "Tom Hansen (Woodstock) and Mike Woelfler (Crystal Lake) are both capable of placing at 190. One may have to compete at heavyweight and wouldn't do as well there."

Others Koehler thinks could place include Jerry Angeloff (Graylake) at 167; Doug Wilson (Granite City) at 142 or 150; Scott Novotny (LaGrange-Lyons) at 134; and Stan Pasiewicz (North Chicago) at 126.

Devils Down Marissa 74-57, To Host Summer on Friday

The Venice High School Red Devils made it 24-0 Tuesday at home when they defeated Marissa 74-57.

The final game of the regular season will be Friday when the Devils host St. Louis Summer beginning at 8 p.m.

There will be no junior varsity game Friday as the Varsity players cagers finished their regular season Tuesday with a 74-38 win over Marissa for a season record of 14-3. Top makers for Venice were Bobby Killion 15, Rich Beuley 12, and James Crowder 11.

The Venice team held the lead at the end of every quarter 14-13, 38-25 and 53-39, outpacing Marissa in the final period 21-18.

The Devils shot 47% from the floor, hitting 30 in 63 attempts, and were 14 out of 18 from the charity line.

Marissa sank 25 field goals and tagged seven charity tosses. Marissa outscored 13 to 12, Venice dominated the boards 42 to 25.

"We did not play well at all," Venice Coach Bill Ohlendorf said. "We have not been playing what I would call good ball the last couple of games. I am not sure why other than our competition has been weak."

"We are going to have to play smarter ball to beat Summer Friday. They have had a good team but I am not sure what shape they will be in after being off for 30 days."

Ron Henry led the Devil attack with 20 points, followed by Dan Severs 18, Cornelius Wiley 16, Ray Mosby 13, J. B. Harmon 4 and Tony Sittan 3.

Trojans, Devils to Swing Into Dupo Regional Tourney

Madison and Venice High School teams will travel to Dupo next week for Class A regional basketball tournament action.

Lebanon and Columbia start the action at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

There will be two games on Wednesday with Lovejoy, seeded second, vs. Dupo at 7 p.m., and the Trojans of Madison, seeded third, vs. St. Henry's of Belleville at 8:30 p.m.

Top-seeded Venice will play the winner of the Tuesday game at 7 p.m. Thursday, and at 8:30 p.m. the winners of the Wednesday games will battle in the finals.

The championship game will be played at 7:30 p.m. on Friday.

"We have got to play, this tourney one game at a time," Coach Larry Graham of Madison said. "If we concentrate on the job at hand we will win. Lovejoy was seeded over us as the rankings were published before we beat them 84-74 in the Dupo tourney."

"They are going to be out after us, but we will worry about that when the time comes. It's got to be first things first and that means St. Henry's."

"Should we be fortunate enough to meet Venice in the championship we will be ready for them."

Venice Coach Bill Ohlendorf commented, "This should be a real good tournament as there are four excellent teams playing."

Lebanon has size, speed and shooting ability and they play in a tough league. Its not going to be easy for us."

"We are planning on playing to win, but it could be anybody's tournament."

Sports Club Sets Stagfest on Friday

The Metro-East Sports Club, sponsor of men's softball and basketball teams in the area, will hold its second annual Stagfest at 7 p.m. Friday at the Long Lake Fireman's hall.

The event will feature a variety of Las Vegas style games and entertainment and a $5 attendance prize will be awarded every half hour beginning at 7 p.m.

Admission is $3 per person at the door and includes free snacks and refreshments and playing money. Food and special features will also be available.

Zany Dartball Game of Hits And Runs Captures Interest

Hits and runs compose the current favorite topic at the Knights of Columbus Club this season.

But isn't baseball they're talking about. Its dartball.

One night a week, generally Tuesdays, a half dozen four-man teams converge at the club for the throwing of darts and for the camaraderie.

To avert thirst from the grueling grind of the game, the beer bar is open.

Now in its second season, the league includes teams as the Misfits, Has Beens and Alky's. Players come from the Quaker Cities, though last year there was competition from Bethalto.

The dartboard is in the form of a large diamond and targets on it designate singles, doubles, triples and home runs.

Few runs are scored, and any hit deserves a slap on the hand and a rousing "all right." A run generally results in pandemonium.

Teams play triple headers on 45-minute schedules. Some players, ranging in age from 21 to 60, complain, or brag, about their .000 batting, or throwing, averages, while others cheat by practicing during the week.

The Misfits are the defending champions. The league champion will receive a trophy in the form of a home-made plaque.

When the players are out of action, there's a game called "foosball." But that's a crazier story.

The fellow who is his own best friend needs no enemies.

Trojans Declaw Dupo Tigers 81-51, Record Now at 12-10

The Dupo High School Tigers were declared in Madison Tuesday by the Trojan cagers 81-51. Madison is now 12-10.

The Trojan press kept Dupo from getting the ball inside for three quarters as the scores went 20-4, 45-17 and 85-26.

Madison shot 49% from the floor, making 37 buckets in 74 attempts. Dupo hit 21 in 55 tries for 41%. From the charity line the Trojans were an even 50% with seven out of 14 and Dupo hit 60%, sinking nine out of 15. Dupo committed 17 personal fouls and Madison 15.

Charles Lucas led the Trojans in rebounds with 16 as Madison dominated the boards 61-29. Lucas also set the scoring pace with 18 points.

Other Madison cagers scoring were Anthony Matthews 12, Chris Stanley 11, Ronny Glasper 9, Jerry Belford 8, Alvin Frazier 7, Rudolph Bradley and Robin Pritchard 6 and Roger Glasper and John Henke 2.

"We played another real good ball game Tuesday," Madison Coach Larry Graham commented. "Our press gave them some real fits. Lucas did a fine job for us. He hit four in a row right at the beginning of the game which didn't help Dupo's morale much.

"Bradley had seven assists and he is really taking shape as a basketball player. If he continues to work at it he will make Madison a first-rate player the next two years. Stanley is another player that is looking real good and we will have him for another year.

"We have a tough game on the road Friday against Robinson III. They have a good club with some talent, but if everyone keeps his mind on the game we'll give them a run for their money."

The Madison junior varsity cagers won their game 57-40 as Ronny Glasper tagged 22 points and Henke made 18.

Rolla Pastes Cougars 101-88 After SIUE Sets Records

The Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville basketball team took a 101-88 pasting from the hands of the University of Missouri-Rolla Wednesday night at the Edwardsville High School gym.

It was a complete turn-around from the night before when the SIUE Cougars set records in trouncing Indiana-Purdue 115-73 at Indianapolis.

The Cougars scored 15-9 in the first half, then eliminated them from an NCAA college division regional bid. They will complete their regular schedule at 8:15 p.m. Saturday at Quincy College.

The Rolla Miners, who led 52-38 at the half, were hot from the floor, sinking 44 shots for a 50.6 average. They added 13 points from the charity line in 21 attempts. SIUE sank 40 field goals and made eight of 17 free throws.

Thurman "Butch" Ferree paced the Cougars with 18 points while normally high scoring Tony Johnson was held to 12. Other Cougars scoring were Leon Wright and Terry Carlson 12, Denny Throneburg, Sam Holmes and John Strubberg 8, Roy Withoff 4, a d Frank Ramsey, Harold Thomas and Nelson 2.

Johnson bucketed 39 points to tie a school record in the Cougar romp at Indianapolis. The mark had been set by John "Champ" Summers in a game against McKendree College in the 1969-70 season.

The 115-point effort in the Indiana-Purdue game also was a record for an SIUE team, bettering a 114-point mark score against Blackburn College in 1970.

Continuing in the record column, Johnson's 18 field goals was the best yet for a Cougar. He added three free throws in six attempts.

Other Cougars in the scoring column were Ferree with 18 points, Carlson and Throneburg 16, Wright 12, Roundtree, Strubberg and Olesky 4 and Ramsey 2.

The Cougars held a 61-34 half-time lead. They totaled 51 field goals and connected on 13 of 16 free throws, while Indiana-Purdue hit on 33 field goal attempts and made seven of nine free throws.

The Cougars will close their regular season at 8:15 p.m. Saturday at Quincy College.

Former Triad Basketball Star With Cougars

Joseph Keith McFarland, of Mac as he is known to most southwestern Illinois area basketball fans, has enrolled at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. Cougar head coach Jim Dudley is not only happy about his current winning season, but extremely pleased that McFarland will be around for two years.

McFarland, a standout at Triad High School, scored at an average of 28.8 points per game last season at Belleville Area Junior College but was in fact what one would call a late bloomer in basketball.

Now, 6'3 1/2" tall, the well-built Triad native didn't even shoot his junior year at Triad. He was only 5'9" tall then.

What brought about the change?

"Well, I think I owe most of the change to Coach Rich Mason, who spent hours and hours working with me on my shots and ball handling and everything else," and as if a little shame-faced to put it in words, he added: "Most of all, by his talking to me like he did, he gave me what young boys need most at that time, confidence in myself and my ability."

As a senior, McFarland sparked the Triad Knights to a 24-6 season with two of those jackpots coming at the hands of powerhouse Collinsville, the last time in the sectional tournament.

He carried a 20-point-per-game average in his senior year at Triad.

Fee Distribution Plan For SIU Doctors Set

A plan to distribute private-practice fees earned by physicians on Southern Illinois University's School of Medicine faculty has been approved by SIU's board of trustees.

Under the arrangement, a percentage of the physician's private income will revert back to the medical school to defray overhead costs of his practice in the University's clinic, and to build up the school's educational and research funds.

Only those faculty doctors who sign contracts under the plan can accept private fees. Contracts will be based on each individual doctor's outside earning potential. In essence, the contracting faculty physician will agree to a lower salary in order to get a personal return on his fees, up to a percentage of his salary. The rest of his private income goes to the medical school.

Dr. Richard Moy, dean of the School of Medicine, said the plan for most of the SIU faculty member's time assigned to teaching and academic work, while the "time he's actually in practice pays for itself."

He said the plan was developed after a year of study, and "has inherent advantages" over so-called medical service plans at other medical schools.

He said some universities pay medical school doctors 100% salaries and pocket all their outside fees, while others pay only token salaries and let the physician keep all his private earnings.

"In addition, the plan affords faculty members a continuing incentive to be 'doctor models,'" Moy said.

The fee-share plan, Moy said, provides that after a certain income level is reached, the physician's portion is sharply reduced, with more money going into overhead, education and research funds.

Moy said that for most SIU-Carbondale School of Medicine faculty members, the actual take-home pay under a service contract will be little different than a straight salary arrangement.

For those faculty members with specialties such as surgery, the "earning potential is tremendous and they are the ones most likely to prefer a salary arrangement to a set salary."

He said another advantage for SIU-C will be lower salary thresholds for assistant and associate professors in such high-income specialties.

"Medical service plans are standard in medical schools," Moy said, "because medical education takes place in its own service world. The faculty is actually playing its professional trade while it teaches."

New 'Marquette and Joliet' Voyagers Will Pass Here Twice in Repeating Historic Trip

Seven men outfitted in 12th Century clothing and traveling by canoe will undertake a strenuous voyage down the Mississippi River from Wisconsin to Arkansas this summer.

The four-month voyage from St. Ignace, Mich., to Helena, Ark., and the return trip will be the reenactment of the historic trip of Louis Joliet and Jacques Marquette in 1673.

The trip will be the major highlight of the tri-centennial celebration of the exploration of the Mississippi and Illinois Rivers by Europeans and will be observed by nine states from Minnesota to Louisiana.

The seven men, all from the Chicago area and able to speak French, will leave St. Ignace on May 17 in two canoes and will work their way down to Helena and then back up to Green Bay, Wis., where the voyage will end Sept. 19.

Robert Sullivan, chief of tourism, Illinois Department of Business and Economic Development, said the trip will be as historically accurate as possible, following the journals kept by Joliet and Marquette.

A Springfield man, Dean Campbell, is in charge of the authenticity of the clothing. The two canoes will be fiberglass but designed to look like birch wood, and the interior of the canoes will be made of wood brought from Canada.

The voyagers, Sullivan said, will start at St. Ignace, travel down the northwest shore of

Granite City PRESS-RECORD

Lake Michigan to Green Bay, across Wisconsin via the Fox River and the Upper Fox River to the Mississippi. From there, the group will travel south to Helena.

They will reverse course and come back up the Mississippi until the reach the Illinois River and then will travel across the state until the reach Chicago.

From there the voyagers will go along the west shore of Lake Michigan back to Green Bay.

Plans for the voyage were developed a year ago when tourism directors from the nine states that border the Mississippi River met and started plans for a tri-centennial celebration.

States involved are Minnesota, Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois, Missouri, Arkansas, Tennessee and Louisiana. One or two Canadian provinces also will participate.

The reason the voyage will stop at Helena, Ark., is a return back up river is that the Joliet and Marquette expedition started the return trip there after receiving reports of hostile Indians and Spaniards farther south.

However, from information obtained from the Indians and navigational equipment, they were able to reach their maps to show the Mississippi flowed south to the Gulf of Mexico instead of turning westward and flowing to California, as originally believed.

The reenactment of the voyage, Sullivan said, will reach all of the states along the Mississippi River, to comply with historical accuracy, but all of the nine states are planning some type of celebration for the 300th anniversary of the trip.

The seven men on the voyage will try to reach the states and stopover points as near the same dates as the original exploration party as possible.

Sullivan added there are plans to have the trip documented for use on television.

The voyagers will enter Illinois between June 17 and June 25 travel down the Mississippi until July 8, when they will leave the boundaries of the state.

On the return trip they will be on the Illinois River from Aug. 15 to Sept. 1.

The trip, Sullivan said, will be a major tourism project of the department this year because of the fact that it will represent 300 years of Illinois history, and because of the many celebrations planned.

He said Illinois will possibly gain more than any of the other states because the voyage group will spend more time in Illinois and will travel two rivers.

Many cities along the Mississippi and Illinois Rivers are planning festivities and the Division of Tourism is coordinating its activities with the Illinois Joliet-Marquette Tri-Centennial Commission.

Each state's division of tourism will be responsible to see the voyagers have the necessary support (food, lodging, etc.) while traveling through that state.

Another major event to commemorate the 300th anniversary will be a nine day festival at the Gateway Arch in St. Louis sponsored by the National Parks Commission.

The festival will begin July 4 and will feature native exhibits of each state taking part in the tri-centennial.

In addition, each state will be featured for one day.

Illinois Day is Sunday, July 8, and the Division of Tourism will show exhibits of crafts, folklore, singing and dancing on that day.

Illinois cities along the Mississippi that have shown interest in participating in a celebration for the voyage so far include Galena, Rock Island, Moline, Nauvoo, Alton, Grand Tower, Chester and Cairo.

Cities along the Illinois River that have shown interest so far are: Peoria, LaSalle, Ottawa, Joliet and Chicago.

The theme of the Chicago lakefront festival this year will be the Joliet-Marquette voyage.

Sullivan said celebrations to commemorate 300 years of Illinois history are not limited to the voyage, and any community can plan observances.

He added that any community or group that wants help in forming some type of observance may call the Division of Tourism offices in Springfield.

Urge More Control Over Community Colleges

By JOANNE LONG
Copy News Service

Springfield — The major recommendation from the Illinois Economic and Fiscal Commission about public community colleges, in a report, was that the General Assembly assert greater control over the 38 colleges through establishment of a state-wide "integrated network" of community colleges.

The commission staff proposal is that this "network" could be under one governing board and one chief educational executive which, as mandated by the new state constitution, would be created by a reorganization of the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The new comprehensive agency and board would oversee all state-supported education from kindergarten through graduate school.

The conclusion of the commission's investigation staff, after visiting 19 of the state's 38 junior colleges, is that "the General Assembly has insufficient control over the junior college system" and "the need for more precise state controls is certainly lacking."

The network would incorporate the innovative "college without walls" idea proposed by the Illinois Board of Higher Education—the proposed Lincoln State University—and the commission recommendation is to drop the idea of setting up a separate LSU bureaucracy and incorporate the idea into the statewide educational network.

As an interim solution, before the "net work" could be set up, the commission staff recommended strengthening the Illinois Junior College Board (IJCBS).

While handing kudos for exemplary performance to a few community colleges, the report in general has a highly critical tone.

It contains a broad implication that various educational institutions and systems in the state are more concerned with what is often called "empire-building" (though the report doesn't use that word) than with offering quality programs that meet student needs, and being economical with taxpayers' money.

The commission report, written by staff director, Mark Chadwin, is particularly harsh in its criticism in what Chadwin and his investigation staff see as "functional duplication" in vocational programs by the community colleges and Area Vocational Centers.

The report suggests using existing community college vocational facilities and sending the high school age and college age students in at different times rather than building new Area Vocational Centers.

The report also criticizes the community colleges for duplicating each others' facilities, a process which is encouraged by the "charge back system."

Besides the report says, "some administrators are anxious to protect their own colleges... local district officials often expressed the feeling that they are being harassed by data requests... (there is) an attitude among college administrators that they are really responsible only to their local board and that the state owes them 90% support but otherwise should leave them alone."

The 50% level was a figure set some years ago but never fulfilled. The state currently gives $18.50 to the colleges for each credit hour taken by students.

"State agencies," says the report, "sometimes seem motivated by similar attitudes, each guarding its own prerogatives and domain, sometimes to the detriment of efficiency and effectiveness..."

Council Again Blocks Mayor's Salary Raise

A new effort to raise the salary of the Granite City mayor—this time to $19,500 per year—was rejected by the City Council Monday night.

An ordinance that would have raised the mayor's salary from $13,200 to the proposed $19,500 failed to reach final passage stage by a roll call vote of eight in favor and five against, including an "aye" vote by Mayor Donald Parney.

A minimum of ten votes is required to suspend the rules to place an ordinance on final passage.

It was the third time the council has turned back a salary increase bill involving the mayor's salary.

A measure that would have set the mayor's salary at $20,000 a year was introduced Jan. 22, but it also failed to reach final passage stage because some aldermen contended the raise of 52% was too high. The council at that time did agree to place it on first reading.

In the council's Feb. 5 meeting, the ordinance calling for the $20,000 salary was brought to second reading and failed to receive enough votes for approval.

The new ordinance introduced Monday night included, as did the previous bill, new salaries of $15,000 each for the city clerk and city treasurer. The council has raised no objections to these increases. The clerk and treasurer now receive $11,400 per year.

Alderman Emerald Dawes, a member of the Finance Committee, has requested a mayor's salary of $18,500, maintaining that anything beyond that figure is too high. Dawes split with Finance Committee Chairman Steve Basarich who originally favored the $20,000 raise and spoke again Monday night in favor of the $19,500 bill.

Any salary raises voted by the council would not become effective until May 1 at the beginning of new terms.

In other action Monday night the council approved on final passage an ordinance changing the boundaries of the Second Ward.

The previous ward boundary extended from 29th Street to the middle of Washington Avenue and from the middle of Washington Avenue in a general northerly direction to Nameoki Road and then to St. Clair Avenue.

The ordinance changes the boundary to proceed on 29th Street to an alleyway between Madison Avenue and Iowa Street and then in a northerly direction until the alleyway terminates at Iowa Street near the intersection with Nameoki Road and St. Clair Avenue.

Under the terms of the ordinance, residents of the 2900 block and 3000 block of Iowa Street, and residents on the west side of the 2900 and 3000 blocks of Washington Avenue, will be residents of the Second Ward.

City Asks Legal Opinion On Withholding Levee Tax

A request for a legal opinion by City Attorney Leon Scroggins as to whether Granite City taxpayers could withhold payment of taxes to the old levee district this year was endorsed by the City Council Monday night.

The suggestion of a tax strike against the bi-county levee district, which he noted is continuing to operate under court rulings, was made by Alderman Sam Whitmer of the Second Ward.

Whitmer told the aldermen that he had requested Scroggins "to look into the statutes and determine if it would be legal to refuse payment of taxes to the old levee district."

The aldermen said that so far as he is concerned, "We now have two levee districts, one in St. Clair County and one in Madison County."

"We have been paying half the taxes in the levee district for years and getting nothing for it," Whitmer added.

Youths Collect $30 For Crippled Children

Two Venice youths collected about $30 for crippled children in a little more than two hours in a neighborhood door-to-door campaign Sunday afternoon in connection with a St. Louis television.

They are Ronnie Martin, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Martin, 516 Third St., and Craig Kaloeger, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Van Kaloeger, 217 Kerr St.

The two youths collected about $17 for the purpose last year.

He noted that the courts have held illegal state legislation designed to split the old levee district along county lines. "If there is a way it could be done legally, withholding of tax funds by Granite City taxpayers might accomplish much more for us than the courts."

Whitmer said he asked Scroggins to give the council a report on the legal status of such a move in its next meeting Monday night.

No motion was made on Whitmer's request, but most of the aldermen nodded in assent to his suggestion.

Community Advisory Council On Education Is Approved

Formation of a Community Advisory Council to help in educational planning was approved by the Granite City Board of Education at a meeting Monday night.

As outlined in a proposal presented by Owen E. Humphrey, curriculum coordinator, a representative from each of 15 groups in the community will be asked to participate.

Letters are to be mailed explaining that the planning process will address itself to the identification of goals and needs in the district and to the identification of student objectives and needs.

Humphrey said that target date for completion of planning and final approval by the Board of Education is Aug. 1 and the plan is to be submitted to the state by Sept. 1.

In addition to the council, Humphrey proposed that special paper and pencil surveys be taken of various individuals and groups in the community to help in the planning process.

To be asked to participate are the Board of Education, Federation of Teachers, Local 743, Education Association, Elementary and Secondary Principals Association, the two high school student councils, Area Council of Parent-Teacher Associations.

Business & Professional Women, labor, Kiwanis, Optimist and Rotary Clubs, Chamber of Commerce and the Quad-Cities Health Action Committee. One seat would be left open on a consultative basis for central office administrators.

Humphrey pointed out that communication between the council member and the group he represents will be of the utmost importance.

In other business the board approved a plan to switch from No. 5 to No. 2 fuel oil in an attempt to solve heating problems at Wilson and Lake Schools.

It was reported that a recent problem at Parkview School was caused by an equipment breakdown which has been repaired and replaced.

Authorized use of a state grant of $1,152 to purchase extra ordinary equipment for multiple handicapped classes.

Accepted a liability insurance coverage plan with Continental Casualty Co. as the district's previous coverage with Pacific Indemnity Co. was canceled. Under the plan the district will pay $1,550 less for a three-year policy with the same coverage.

Authorized use of school facilities by the McKinley PTA for an idea of March carnival dinner March 25. Niedringhaus PTA for a spaghetti supper on Feb. 27 and Club Pack 109 for a Blue & Gold banquet on Monday at Lake School.

Authorized pupils to participate in a correct posture poster contest on a voluntary basis.

Approved attendance by Monte Kessler at an IBM class April 3-6 in Chicago at a cost of $500.

Approved coordination of separate fire alarm systems at Namekoi School by Dron Electric Co. at a cost of $348.

Accepted gifts of three or more color television sets from the Frohardt PTA and about $200 worth of playground equipment from the PTA.

Authorized Elsie Rhodes to attend the convention of the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics April 25-28 at Houston, Tex.

Considered an offer by Phone Craft Inc. to conduct surveys to discover any telephone bill overcharges which could save district money at a rate of 50% of the savings. The board asked for further investigation and recommendation on the proposal.

Accepted the consultant services offered by Mrs. Mary Horn, occupational therapist employed by the Special Education Title VI Diagnostic Centers at Edwardsville and Calhoun at no cost to the district. She will make suggestions to teachers regarding therapeutic activities for individual students.

Approved purchase of industrial arts equipment from 11 districts for $1,551, instructional paper from three firms for $5,814, Judy puzzles and racks for $1,059, a frymaster pot for french fried potatoes at Central Junior High School for $235 and additional chalk and tack boards for the new high school for $350.

Approved educational fund bills of $2,605, federal fund bills of $13, joint agreement fund bills of $25, new construction fund bills of $127,866, building fund bills of $82,287, transportation fund bills of $36,892 and travel bills of $327.

10-Foot Rise in Water Level Here In 5-Year Period

Water levels in wells in most of the Madison-St. Clair Counties area are considerably higher than in 1966, according to a report just published by the Illinois State Water Survey.

The new publication summarizes groundwater levels and pumping for 1967-1971 in five major pumping centers of the area. The centers are Alton, Wood River, Granite City, National City and Monticello.

Reduced pumping during those five years, favorable precipitation and high Mississippi River stages brought about the increased water levels, according to author William H. Baker Jr. of the Water Survey's regional office in Collinsville.

The survey has been conducting an intensive data collection program on the groundwater resources of East St. Louis and vicinity since 1941, when industries became alarmed at declining water levels, he said.

Groundwater pumping was 108.1 million gallons per day in 1966 and decreased to 79.5 million gallons a day in 1971.

Most of the decrease in pumping occurred after 1969, primarily as the result of changes in industries and the introduction of conservation measures throughout all area industry, Baker reported.

During the five-year study period, water levels rose feet in the Niantic area near the Mississippi River, five feet in the National City area and 10 feet in the Wood River area.

Water levels in the Wood River area declined 15 feet in one area and rose 10 feet in another area as the center of pumping moved because of an increase and shift in pumping. Water levels in the Alton area declined 20 feet in one area as a result of a shift in center of pumping.

Of the 79.5 million gallons pumped daily in 1971, 86.9% was industrial, 9.7% was for public supplies, 3% was for domestic use and 0.8% was for irrigation.

The publication, "Groundwater Levels and Pumpage in the East St. Louis Area, Illinois, 1967-1971," is listed as Circular 112. Single copies are available free from the Illinois State Water Survey, Box 232, Urbana, Ill. 61801.

PRICES

DON'T BLAME YOUR SUPERMARKET FOR HIGH MEAT PRICES, BECAUSE...

As the Director of Economic Affairs, U.S. Department of Agriculture reported, retail meat prices would be even higher had not supermarkets like Kroger delayed passing on big increases in wholesale costs. (Example: USDA Choice beef up 23¢ since Dec. 1.)

KEEPING YOU POSTED
Nobodys making a big profit on meats. Then, why are meat prices so high?
Because demand continues to exceed supply. Because increasing imports did not help - increased worldwide demand made less foreign beef available and what was available cost more.
Because heavy rains in U.S. grain-producing areas ruined crops, pushing up grain prices. (Most animals are grain-fed.) Because large U.S. grain exports contributed to shortages and higher prices.
Because even such occurrences as Australia's recalling the dollar and poor uncovry catches in Peru and Chile had their effect on increasing meat prices. (Australia accounts for half our beef imports. Anchovies are a necessary protein source for feeding purposes.) Because all this happened in a short time and when inflationary factors were already high.
Knowing the "whys" of high meat prices won't lower them, sad to say. It will help you understand that supermarkets are not to blame. So, please don't take it out on your Kroger store manager. He's hurting almost as much as you.

Scouting Is Topic at Madison Rotary Meet

"Scouting today is a lot more than most people think," William Monical, Boy Scout executive of the Cahokia Mound Council, told the Madison Rotary Club at its regular meeting Wednesday in the Madison Recreation Center.

Monical pointed out that although the basics of Scouting, character building, citizenship training and physical fitness remain the same, the program continually is being made more relevant to the world a boy lives in.

As an example, he referred to some of the new merit badges such as "Space Exploration" and "Computers."

The month of February marks the 63rd anniversary of Scouting in this country and the 23rd year of the local Cahokia Mound Council.

MORE ABOUT
 fered an attack during the ordeal—was taken by ambulance to Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, where he was treated and released.

Aiding Granite City police were officers from the Madison and Venice departments and one state trooper.
 A total of $10,000 bonds was set by Associate Judge Antonio Matosian, including $5,000 on the unlawful restraint charge and $2,500 on each of the other two charges.

 It was reported at 4:10 p.m. Tuesday by Evelyn Corbett, who also resides at 1630 E. 23rd St., that during Monday afternoon $63 was missing from her wallet which was on the kitchen table of the Roberts apartment.

Because of the incident and the danger apparent to police officers during the siege, the Granite City Council, which convened in regular meeting a short time after Williams' capture, approved a proposal to buy some needed equipment—bullet-proof vests. The council acted on a motion by Alderman Everett Morten, chairman of the council's Police Committee, who told the aldermen that Granite City police borrowed several such vests from state police early Monday evening.

Council members authorized City Clerk Robert Stevens to purchase three bullet-proof vests at the lowest available prices.

Williams is believed to have taken refuge in the apartment to avoid arrest, obtaining entry when Miss Wood, who was visiting, opened the door after he knocked. He had been sought actively by Granite City officers since Sunday morning.

Miss Wood remained relatively calm throughout the day, commenting on one of her trips outdoors that "he just talks. He's pretty cool."

Mrs. Evelyn Cebitt, sister of Mrs. Roberts, recalled being in the Roberts apartment between 10 and 11 a.m. Monday when Williams appeared at the door and demanded to be let in. When he later went to another room, she was able to leave through a back door and alert police.

Part of the officers' efforts were devoted to seeking the safe departure of residents of other apartments in the multiple-unit dwelling.

Police were able to enter the building periodically but avoided a direct confrontation as long as it appeared that they might be able to persuade Williams to give up or release the hostages. The arrival of bullet-proof vests and the sound of shooting prompted them to end their patient wait.

Walker Freezes Tax Multiplier

Gov. Dan Walker on Wednesday ordered the statewide real estate tax multiplier frozen at the current level, pending legislative review and "possible criminal investigation."

The freeze should help hold real estate taxes at their present levels in a number of counties, provided the local communities exercise fiscal restraint, Walker said.

He made the announcement at a news conference in Chicago.

Gov. Walker took action after an investigation by Frank Kirk, director of the Department of Local Government Affairs. Among the taxpayers hardest hit by "manipulation of the multiplier," the investigation showed, are those living in DuPage County.

Two Sites Considered For Shopping Center

One of two major shopping centers proposed to be built in Madison will be located along the west side of Madison Avenue either from 10th to 12th streets or from 12th to 13th streets, Mayor Mike Sasyk announced following a meeting of the city's shopping center committee Tuesday night.

The city now has options on most of the 27 parcels of property between 10th and 12th streets, and 11 of the 18 property owners between 12th and 13th streets have indicated a willingness to sell, Sasyk said.

He said the second proposal would involve relocating fewer families. He asked that Jerry Maeras of the Fijan-Maeras Agency contact the remaining seven property owners between 12th and 13th streets and attempt to obtain agreements to sell.

LOOT TELEVISION SHOP
 Three portable televisions, valued at $900, were stolen in a burglary at Solar TV, 1010 Madison Ave., Madison, it was reported Wednesday. Two men were seen running from the store at 5:45 a.m. Wednesday. They entered an auto where another man was waiting. They fled north on Madison Avenue. A fly wheel from an auto was used to break the front door of the store and gain entrance.

New Tax Ruling on Child-Care Expenses

When filing your income tax this year, check into the new laws concerning deductions for child-care expenses.

Karen Schnittgrund, University of Illinois Extension family economics specialist, reports that families may deduct as much as $400 a month for child-care expenses incurred while both husband and wife were gainfully employed full-time.

The ruling includes these stipulations: The child must be under age 13; he must be a member of the household; and he must be a person for whom the family is normally allowed an exemption. Deductible child-care costs may be incurred in the household or outside the family's household. If the services are performed in the household, the family may deduct as much as $400 a month; however, if the services are performed outside the household, the expenses deducted for any one month may not exceed $200 for one child, $300 for two children, and $400 for three or more children.

This ruling applies to families whose combined adjusted gross income is less than $18,000. If the combined adjusted gross income is more than $18,000, the deductible expenses for child-care are reduced by one-half of the amount by which that figure exceeds $18,000 for the year.

Before the change in the tax law, families were allowed to deduct child-care expenses only if their joint income was $6,000 or less.

For more information about this change or other changes in the tax laws, get in touch with the nearest Internal Revenue Service office.

The Madison Progressive

of Mrs. William E. Griggs, 1030
Market St., with Mrs. A. Sands presiding.

Mrs. Virginia Washington presented a program and quiz on "Black History" to commemorate Black History Week.

The club completed plans to attend the American Passion
Play on Easter Sunday, April
22, in the afternoon.

All tickets and bus reservations have been sold.

A donation was given to the Southern Illinois District of Progressive Women and its annual scholarship fund.

The hostess served refreshments to Mesdames Sange, Mahala Griggs, Linda James, Lo-leta Jenkins, Clara Floyd, Virginia Washington, Frank and Griggs and Rosie Parnell.

A Valentine theme was utilized by the hostess.

Mrs. Mary E. Moran, a learning disabilities resource teacher at Washington and Logan elementary schools, has been selected as the 1973
"Young Career Woman" by the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club.

This year's honoree was introduced to club members at last night's dinner meeting at Charlie's Restaurant by Mrs.
Ann Burton, BPW Young Career
Woman chairman.

Mrs. Moran, whose husband,
George J. Moran Jr., of Granite City, is a law student at Saint Louis University, will represent the local BPW Club in competition against other candidates, sponsored by area groups, at the District 14 spring meeting. The latter event is set for March 31 at Fischer's Resaurant in Belleville.

She is the daughter of Mrs.
Eleanor Valmiste of Granite City and the late James Volmer, who died a year ago of cancer.

Mrs. Moran and her husband are living temporarily at a

Aug. 7, 1971. They are planning to make their home in Granite City.

The "Young Career Woman" candidate received her education at Washington and Logan elementary and secondary education in Litchfield.

She told BPW members that "I had always wanted to become a teacher ever since I can remember. I was fortunate to have had some able teachers who took a personal interest in me, and thereby helped me to become a better person. It was primarily through their example and the influence of adults that I decided to become a teacher."

Mrs. Moran, 24, received a bachelor's degree in science education from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, where she majored in special education for the emotionally disturbed.

During her college years, she also worked for University Ex-

H. Robert Bartlett Jr., commissioner of banks and trust companies, announced Friday that the 742 Illinois state banks in operation Dec. 30, 1972, the date of the most recent call, reported total resources of $18,931,641,662 and total deposits of $15,500,386,542.

The 52 state banks in Chicago had resources of $8,408,727,020 and deposits of $7,047,063,438. The remaining 690 banks in the state had resources of $10,522,914,642 and showed deposits of $9,462,333,104.

Time and savings deposits of individuals, partnerships and corporations amounted to $8,685,081,188, of which Chicago banks reported $3,344,834,546. The 742 banks reported investments of $6,233,730,270 and $9,094,109,725.

GUN STOLEN AT STORE

5 Dinners to Help Gov. Walker Pay Campaign Debts

Copley News Service

Springfield — Democratic county chairmen are less than enthusiastic about the prospect of helping Gov. Dan Walker pay off his campaign debts. A meeting between Administration officials and county chairmen broke up without the chairmen agreeing to support a $50-a-plate April 5 dinner in Springfield.

It is one of five planned to be held across the state during the next two months. The governor is having the dinners to help pay off a campaign debt running into hundreds of thousands of dollars.

The chairmen did not support Walker during the primary election, but most worked for him in the general election—some with the hope of being rewarded with a job in the administration. Since then, Walker has said no county chairman can hold his party post and a state job, too. Some of the party pros think they are not being treated fairly. "He came to us and wanted support," is their attitude. "We

TWO VEHICLES ENTERED

Two vehicles parked at Charles' Restaurant were entered by burglars. It was reported at 9:30 p.m. Monday. A two-way radio valued at $200 and a tape player valued at $100 were stolen from the truck of Richard Metz, Rural Route Two. A vent window was looted in the auto of Russell Ames, 3236 Carlson Ave. The left window and vent were broken.

TWO AUTOS COLLIDE

Autos driven by Russell J. Gaddy, 1215 Meridian St., and Edward L. Tomlin, 2139 Lee Ave., collided at 4:35 p.m. Monday at 21st and Adams streets.

gave it to him and now we're not good enough for him."

One chairman, noting the governor's executive order prohibiting collection of campaign funds from government employees, said the governor gladly accepted money from those sources during the campaign.

Some of the liberal, "anti-Daley" forces within the administration are almost gleeful at the rift with the regular Democratic organization because it improves the governor's "populist" identification.

The administration official credited with forming the "independent" philosophy is Walker's top political operative, Victor DeGrazia.

Although just beginning to work again after recovering from a December heart attack, he is believed to have made some of the important decisions during the first few weeks of the administration.

DeGrazia will probably be to Walker what John Erlichman and H. R. "Bob" Holderman are to President Nixon.

In DeGrazia's absence, much of the political work such as hiring of personnel fell to 31-year-old David Cleveland, who serves as an assistant for state agencies.

Cleveland kept the political operations in a "holding pattern," as one prominent Democrat put it, while waiting for DeGrazia to return. Now that he has, some county chairmen are hopeful relations with them will improve.

Others are pessimistic that they will. These chairmen still think Walker might plan to set up his own political party within the Democratic party.

How things turn out in the next few months may well determine the future of the Democratic party in Illinois.

Scott Likely to Run Vs. Walker Not Stevenson

Copley News Service

Springfield — A Lincoln Week effort to spark a 1974 senatorial candidacy for Republican Atty. Gen. William J. Scott failed to raise any smoke—much less, fire — beneath the Capitol Dome.

Republican Congressmen Paul Findley of Pittsfield hoisted the Scott senate banner at the Lincoln luncheon that included major party leaders, such as U.S. Sen. Charles H. Percy. But few appeared to take it seriously.

Realistic GOP strategists see more minutes than pluses in any Scott candidacy against Democrat Adlai E. Stevenson next year.

Scott is just beginning a second four-year term and should be a run for senator the pressure would be so great that he might have to resign. This would give Democratic Gov. Dan Walker the enormous bonus of appointing the Scott successor. A Scott Senate victory would produce the same result.

With the party currently shut out of all state offices, with the exception of the new and relatively minor one of comptroller, GOP leaders are in no mood to give up the powerful office of attorney general.

A Scott-Stevenson race would unquestionably be a hard-fought one, with the outcome probably close.

But Scott would be giving up some points in advance by running for another office while he still had two years to go in his present.

With competition as tough as Stevenson, this could prove devastating.

It is also noted that Scott's electoral victories have come in races for purely state offices. Running for the Senate would put in another element and this, too, would be an additional handicap.

Illinois voters are more often than not inclined to return incumbent senators and congressmen.

Scott did occur in 1948, 1950 and 1966. But in all three instances, the anti-vote was from the left.

The three defeated senators were all from the party currently in power at the state level and voter dissatisfaction was at high tide.

Loebers were Republican C. Wayland Brooks in 1948, going down to defeat with GOP Gov. Dwight D. Green. In 1950, a third term: Democrat Scott W. Lucas in 1966, engulfed by Korean war dissent reflected against Democrat President Truman's administration and reinforced by Cook county scandals which reversed the Illinois voter sentiment that had elected Democrat Adlai E. Stevenson II as governor two years before.

Fires Here Cause Losses of $264,845 During 1972

Fire caused an estimated $264,845 damage in Granite City during 1972, an average of $6.06 per person, according to the annual report of the Granite City Fire Department was presented to the City Council Monday night.

Losses included $144,145 damage to buildings, $102,260 damage to contents of buildings and $18,440 to motor vehicles.

The department answered 688 calls during the year, including 165 calls to building fires, 97 to burning motor vehicles, 152 to weed and rubbish fires, 15 to electrical calls, 98 false alarms and 161 miscellaneous calls.

In his report to the council, Earl Frommberger, chief, suggested that the Number Three fire station be moved.

He also recommended the relocation of #3 Fire Station to a more suitable location than Nameoki Road," he said in the report.

He indicated that besides answering fire calls, firemen inspected and tested the gallonage flow and pressure of all city fire hydrants and conducted inspections at many stores, schools, churches and fraternal halls.

Antique dealers from Illinois and Missouri will bring jewelry, art glass, dolls, silver, china, glassware, oriental rugs, furniture and American primitives to the show, including some items of museum quality, according to Mrs. Stephen Stinson, executive secretary of the Friends of Lovejoy Library. Choice decorator items also will be available.

Parkview PTA Honors Founders and Scouts

Parkview School PTA honored past presidents during its February "Founders' Day" program.

Mrs. Pat Gunter, president, introduced Mrs. Agnes Fryntko, principal, who recognized the honored guests.

Mrs. Fryntko briefly outlined the history of Parkview School, now in its seventh year. Those on hand to receive past president gifts of engraved desk sets were William F. Winter, the first president, who served during the 1966-67 school year, and Bob Kirgan, who filled the presidency during two terms, 1968-69 and 1969-70. Winter is editor of the Press-Record; Kirgan is district PTA director.

Other past presidents were Francis Herman, 1967-68; Bob Hildebrand, 1970-71; and Mrs. Elizabeth Briggs, 1971-72.

Cub Scouts of Pack 26, sponsored by the PTA, presented the colors and led the pledge of allegiance. Marvin Meng, instructor, representative, introduced the pack.

Cubmaster Frank Fleming spoke concerning the cub program and introduced den leaders, Mesdames Suzanne Brooks, Pat Gunter, Harriet Lovins, Priscilla Veach and Delores Rose. He reported that the pack received first place in Cub Scout Week window display competition.

Each den presented a play or told about its projects. The pack also is featured in the school display case in observance of scouting month.

Reports were given by Gary Welborn and Robert Kirgan, the latter for PTA District 29.

A candy sale was announced for the end of March, with each student receiving 10% of his sales receipts. Mrs. Fryntko and Miss Pat Crump will serve as co-chairmen.

Mrs. Joanne Spencer reported on a planning meeting of sixth grade room mothers, and announced that a special program will be held to honor the first class to have had the opportunity to complete its grade school education—from kindergarten through sixth grade—at Parkview School.

Mrs. Gunter requested volunteers to prepare for the annual picnic, and announced that the next PTA meeting will include presentation of a slate of officers for next year. Monty Kessler will represent the executive board on the nominating committee and Mrs. Harriet Lovins and Ken Spencer were nominated to serve with him.

Refreshments were served. The evening's prize was given to Allen Kirgan.

Boys Help Drive To Aid Children

Three Granite City brothers collected a total of $17.90 in a neighborhood door-to-door drive early this week to aid the 7th annual Variety Club's television "Crusade for Forgotten Children."

This is the fourth time the trio has helped in the children's fund-raising drive, their mother reported. She noted that contributions seemed "harder" this year than in previous campaigns.

Mrs. Davis also received a memorial during the weekend from Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, wife of the late former President. She has exchanged cards with the Johnson family on several occasions during past years, the Granite City resident said.

Plimpton to Appear At McKendree College

George Plimpton, "the professional amateur," is coming to McKendree College.

Plimpton has commercialized his interest in what is like to be a star professional by engaging the experts: golf with Sam Snead, bridge with Oswald Jacoby, pitching to major league all stars (an endless inning), quarterbacking the Detroit Lions in a training session, playing with the New York Philharmonic under Bernstein, and even three brutal rounds with Archie Moore, who gave him a bloody nose.

His exploits have been publicized in "Paper Lion," "Out of My League" and "Bogey Man."

Plimpton will appear at 8 p.m. Sunday in the McKendree College gym under the auspices of the Student Government speaker's committee. While admission will be free to students, others will be charged $2 to help cover the cost of the appearance.

Plimpton said he has not finished his career as a professional amateur. He is looking ahead to hockey in the NHL, chess with Bobby Fisher, trying out as an acrobat in the circus, appearing with the Metropolitan Opera and a bullfight.

Proposed State School Board Would Deal With Goal Setting, Planning and Finance

This month's recommendation for a 17-member state board of education was issued by a 14-member Committee on School Governance.

The committee includes Dr. Michael J. Bakalis, superintendent of public instruction; Dr. James Holderman, executive director, Illinois Board of Higher Education; Edward Epstein, president, Illinois Association of School Boards; Dr. James Redmond, Chicago school superintendent; and Mrs. Ruth Grobe of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The 61-page report favors a single board covering all levels of education — kindergarten through graduate school.

The board would be divided into two separate councils, one for elementary and secondary schools and one for higher education.

Each council would have eight members and the state board chairman would serve on each but vote only to break a tie.

The committee's findings contend a two-chambered board would provide a unique opportunity for Illinois to establish a coordinated approach toward educational goal setting, planning, and finance.

"It is clear," the report states, "that a comprehensive state board would better serve the whole educational community, both by articulating the real resource needs and educational priorities of the state and by insuring that these decisions would be made in the first instance by those whose expertise and concern was exclusively educational."

The committee says a bi-camera board could bring effective supervision and planning to all elements of education through accurate identification of priorities and needs, thereby eliminating many duplicate functions and activities in today's educational structure.

The committee viewed education as a continuous, lifelong process that should not be artificially segmented.

The committee further felt such a board would be able to adapt to changing educational needs and to devise new programs and delivery systems in fields such as adult and career education, which would involve both basic and higher education resources.

The board, according to the study, would be the only statewide agency speaking for education, and so would exert an influence that would make real educational leadership possible.

The 1970 Illinois Constitution mandates that a state board of education be established before January 1975.

It leaves the creation of the board to the legislature but specifies that the board must appoint a chief state school officer to succeed the present superintendent of public instruction when his term expires in January 1975.

The committee recommends that prior to January 1975 the powers, duties of the state board be limited to determining the qualifications, salary, tenure and duties of the appointed state school officer; interviewing candidates for the position; appointing a chief state school officer no later than November 1974; determining procedures for state board operations; and analyzing the structure and staff of the department of education.

Duties recommended for the board after January 1975 include:

—Assume powers and duties vested in the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Board of Higher Education, the Board of Division of Vocational and Technical Education and any other powers and duties assigned by law.

—Analyze present and future needs and goals of Illinois education.

—Provide for research, planning, and evaluation of Illinois education.

—Determine policies directly affecting basic and higher education and establish fiscal management procedures and staffing to coordinate all Illinois educational programs.

—Recommend to the General Assembly a program for financing Illinois education based on reports of the basic educational council and the higher educational council.

—Perform all other duties and exercise all other powers assigned to the full board by law or a majority vote of both councils.

The basic education council's responsibilities, as outlined in the report, would include: formulation of rules and regulations, standards, policies and guidelines for the safe, efficient and effective operation of elementary and secondary schools; development and implementation of policies regarding the recognition and supervision of schools.

Also submission to the entire state board recommendations for financing basic education; coordination of facilities, curricula, and personnel; leadership and aid in establishing vocational education schools and classes; and performance of all other duties and exercise of all other powers delegated by law or administrative regulations of the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Board of Vocational and Technical Education.

"The higher education council is charged with analyzing all requests of state institutions of higher learning; approving a higher education budget for submission to the state board; analyzing the present and future aims, needs and requirements of higher education.

Also updating the master plan for higher education; approving all new units of instruction, research and public service undertaken by higher education institutions and their governing boards; and performing all duties and exercising all other powers delegated by law or administrative rules of the Board of Higher Education.

Special standing committees of equal membership from both councils would provide leadership in areas that incorporate elements of both basic and

Pollution Control Board Solving Permit Problems

Copley News Service
Springfield — It used to be "which comes first, the chicken or the egg?"

Now it's "which comes first, the permit or the equipment?"

And the answer according to the Illinois Pollution Control Board, is "Both."

The PCB, resuming activity recently, has fined a Cook County firm for offenses which included, in part, failure to obtain a permit to install air pollution control equipment which is necessary in order to obtain a permit to operate.

The case involved Mystik Tape, Inc., a division of Borden, Inc., which manufactures pressure sensitive tapes for home and industrial use.

The firm was found guilty of air pollution violations, and was fined $3,500, both for the violations and the failure to obtain permits before beginning equipment installations.

In the same case, the PCB also took a slap at the Environmental Protection Agency which draws up and presents complaints alleging violations.

The board served notice on the EPA that "shot gun assertions of future violations will no longer be tolerated," after noting that with increasing frequency proceedings were being filed which charged that violations had occurred, were occurring and would continue to occur "to the close of the record."

The board found the phrasing too vague for a respondent to answer.

The same question came up again in another case, in which the board also reprimanded the EPA for its handling of a case involving landfill violations in Ogle County.

In the landfill case, the site was closed more than three months before the EPA got around to filing complaints that there had been violations in the operation.

The case then dragged on, with two hearings 10 months apart, and a final decision was not reached until Jan. 16, nearly 27 months after the violations occurred.

The board imposed a $300 fine for the violations but softened the medicine with a spoonful of sugar in the form of a notice that because of the various "unnecessarily broad and unfair" pleadings in the case by the EPA, the board would be inclined to dismiss the proceedings without imposing a penalty.

Unfortunately for landfill operator, George Rosenbalm, the board's opinion then went on "but we do believe it important not to let clear violations of the law and regulations pertaining to landfill sites go un punished."

So the $300 penalty stands. The board had been inactive for several weeks recently for lack of a quorum, a lack which was corrected when Gov. Dan Walker appointed Donald A. Hens to the board.

Federal Aid Program May Result in Higher Costs

By BOB ESTILL
Copley News Service

Springfield — The federal take-over next year of aid to the aged, blind and disabled may not be the boon to the state it was first thought to be, according to an Illinois Public Aid Department spokesman.

It could mean lesser benefits for recipients and higher costs to Illinois taxpayers as a result of more liberal federal eligibility requirements and the possibility of the state supplementing the federal benefits, according to Mrs. Barbara Wright, public information officer for the department.

Under a measure signed Oct. 30 by President Nixon, the federal government will take over the state program of aid to the aged, blind and disabled.

The federal Supplemental Security Income will be administered by the Social Security Administration.

Currently the state administrator the programs which are funded on a 50-50 matching basis by the state and local governments.

However, in Illinois and 34 other states, the current payment levels are higher than the minimum federal payments. Under the new program, of $130 a month for an individual and $185 for a couple.

Illinois' standards are set to individual needs but the average recipient here could lose $30 to $35 a month if the state doesn't supplement the federal payments, Mrs. Wright said.

Legislation is being readied to provide that the state would make up the difference between the federal payments and the current amounts received by individuals in these three categories.

In addition, recipients stand to lose food stamp bonuses and Medicaid benefits under SSI.

Mrs. Wright said the Illinois Department understands SSI has more liberal eligibility requirements and policies regarding home worth, income and assets which could increase the number of persons receiving aid.

In November, the last month for which statistics are available, Illinois had 84,496 persons receiving disability aid at a cost of $9 million, 35,735 receiving aid age assistance at a cost of $2.41 million and 1,729 persons in the blind category at a cost of $185,000.

Those are monthly totals and the totals of 1972 in all three categories was 119,500 persons receiving $140.1 million in aid.

The total impact of SSI on Illinois isn't known, but Mrs. Wright said Missouri first figured its cost would be cut by $42 million and then learned the cost would be increased $42 million after the guidelines were explained.

The effect of the federal takeover on Illinois won't be determined until a team from the Social Security Administration comes here to explain the program and the federal standards, she said.

The SSA apparently has held back on coming here until Gov. Walker names a successor to Edward Weaver as Illinois Public Aid director, she said.

Mrs. Wright also noted there are still possibilities of change in the federal program. U. S. Sen. Thomas Eagleton, (D-Mo.) has introduced legislation to restore the food stamp benefits to the program.

She also expressed concern about Medicaid. Although the federal government will take over the other aid payments entirely, the medical program will continue to be funded on the matching basis, and a medical costs take 45 cents of every welfare dollar spent in Illinois.

Women Troopers Unlikely On State Police Force

Copley News Service

Springfield — Superintendent Dwight E. Pittman, new director of the Illinois State Police, says he's still familiarizing himself with his job. But some things he already knows for sure:

—There won't be a request for an increase in the 1,750-man force during this session of the legislature.

—There aren't likely to be any women troopers in the near future.

—Gun control is a complex subject and is going to demand a more complex answer than a mere prohibition.

—Personally, just as Dwight E. Pittman, he feels total abolishment of the death penalty was not wise, and —He views himself as an ultra-conservative who "still believes in the majesty of the law."

The 45-year-old father of six has been in the state police force since 1953, and though he speaks of familiarizing himself with the job he's no stranger to the front office in the law enforcement setup.

He was administrative aide to former Supt. William Morris, then during the brief tenure of Morris' successor when Gov. Sam Shapiro held office, and for another six months under James T. McGuire, whom he succeeds.

For most of the last several years he has been director of training, and says that during that period a number of changes were made with which he's just now acquainting himself. Most are internal changes in structuring, rather than policy, he says.

On the recurring question of females on the force, Supt. Pittman says he would have some serious doubts about assigning a woman trooper to regular duty, alone in a patrol car in remote rural areas where assistance, if needed, might be half an hour away.

"I can't help but question," he says, "whether a drunk or a belligerent subject might not become more aggressive or less likely to cooperate if the trooper who stopped him was a woman."

"If we get to the point where we have troopers who can only be given some assignments, but not all, we're going to be in big trouble. With 1,750 men for the entire state of Illinois, we can't afford troopers who can't be sent on any job."

He notes as well that the final decision is not his, but the Merit Board's since that body accepts and reviews applications, conducts interviews and makes final choices. The State Police participate in conducting such phases of qualification as eye exams and ability tests.

He doesn't close the door entirely on the idea, though, adding "I guess we won't know how they'll work out until we try."

He stresses that the Illinois state police employ a large number of women as dispatchers, and says they are as competent, and in some cases better able to take the continuing stress, than their male counterparts.

Of the overall state police operation in Illinois, the superintendent feels "We've made steady progress toward getting a professional police operation and my role will be to continue that kind of progress."

Pittman emphasizes that his views on capital punishment are his own, and not departmental, when he says "with no death penalty as a deterrent, what's going to stop a man already serving a life sentence, or a long string of consecutive sentences, from killing a guard, or another prisoner?"

"He's got nothing to lose."

Taking a human life is always something to trouble the conscience, and there certainly should be plenty of safeguards before the death penalty is imposed, but I believe there are some cases where it is the only solution left."

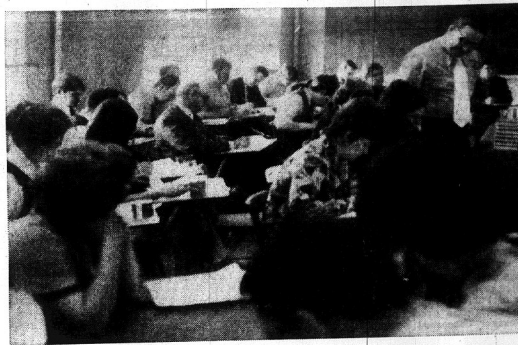

That's when Pittman continues "Of course, I'm an ultra-conservative, who still believes in the majesty of the law. Laws, and people to enforce them, are necessary. Our social structure couldn't operate without those who see that laws are adhered to."

Two New School Election Polls Added at Madison

The Madison School Board has voted to add two new polling places in the school district for the April 14 school board election, bringing the total to four.

Board members are to publish the new boundaries and polling places when finalized. The naming of election judges for the polls was tabled until the next board meeting.

Mrs. Fannie Fisk, mother of a student at Madison High School injured while playing football, reported that the required $5 school insurance policy for athletes contains provisions not explained to the parents when they purchased the insurance.

She said her son was injured but was not hospitalized until more than 60 days after the accident on the advice of his doctor. After the close of school, he was admitted to the hospital for surgery on an injured arm.

The Bethalto Insurance Co. declines to pay the bill because of a clause which says hospitalization must occur within 60 days after the accident, she alleged.

A letter from the school principal explaining the policy did not mention the provision, she contended. The board said it will study the issue and will have the board attorney help prepare future letters to parents explaining the policy provisions.

The board tabled action on a proposed schoolwide dental insurance program offered by Bethalto Insurance. The $3 per year per child premium would protect each student against accidental damages to his teeth.

Chester McManaway of the board indicated the board should study exclusions in the policy before deciding whether to offer it to students.

A letter from Brothers 2 Sporting Goods in Granite City, asking that it be added to the list of bidders for sporting contracts, was placed on file.

Permission was granted to Wade E. James, special education director, to apply for a $5,000 Right to Read grant and to forward a claim for reimbursement for second semester vocational credit courses to the Office of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Mrs. Donna Crook, president of Concerned Parents and Citizens, a Madison group interested in school improvements and opposed to busing, presented three complaints to the board.

She said the group was locked out of Madison High School for half-an-hour Feb. 14 when it had permission from the board to use the school for a meeting.

She said teachers at Madison High School are continuing to use profane language in the school, a complaint made two months ago to the board by a local minister.

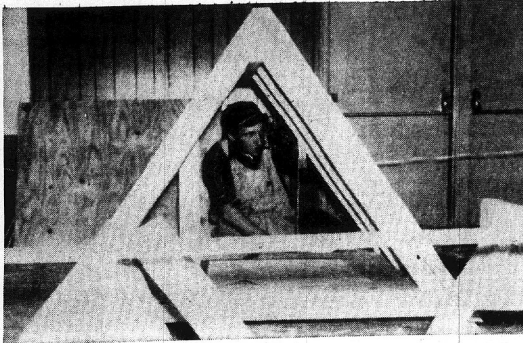

She also said the parents are upset because teachers at elementary levels are not indicating the numbers of tardy and absent days on each student's report card.

The board indicated measures will be taken to correct all of the problems.

Mrs. Mary Robinson was granted a leave for the remainder of the school year. A request by a Title I clerical aide for a leave of absence was tabled for further study.

Applications for teacher aides, cafeteria workers and custodians were received and filed.

The board established Monday, April 23, as a required attendance day. It had been reserved as a snow day. June 8 was set as the final attendance day of the school year.

May 31 was set as the day for graduation at Madison Junior High School. The high school graduation will be June 1.

A proposed budget for the special education district in the Quad-City area is to be considered by the Special Education Board Tuesday, Feb. 27, board members were told.

Several requests for use of school district facilities were approved. The Concerned Parents and Citizens were granted use of the Harris School cafeteria the third Wednesday night of each month for meetings.

Permission was granted to the Madison High School Student Council to hold a car wash on the school parking lot from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. March 3. An alternate date in case of rain is March 10.

Use of the Dunbar School gymnasium was granted to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People to show a movie on the life of Dr. Martin Luther King at 6 p.m. Friday, April 20, Good Friday. The permission is contingent on the group obtaining a custodian and insurance.

Howlett Urges Law for Optional State ID Card

Michael J. Howlett, secretary of state, on Monday urged passage of legislation for a state identification card for all citizens who request it.

He supported a proposed "Illinois Identification Card Act" sponsored by State Rep. John Merlo in the state House of Representatives.

It would authorize the secretary of state to issue I.D. cards to every applicant, without regard to age and without regard to whether the applicant is a licensed driver.

"The state should provide an identification card, similar to a driver's license, for the blind, the crippled, the aged and others who don't drive a car," said Howlett.

"A driver's license is more than a permit to drive a car. It is the principal means of identification for Illinois citizens."

"Anyone who tries to cash a check in a grocery store or a bank may be asked to show his driver's license. It has more descriptive detail than a voter's registration card or Social Security card - height, weight,

McKendree Offers Prep Juniors Escrow Program

There is an awakening interest in McKendree College's credits in escrow program for high school juniors, according to Ray Devery, vice-president of the college at Lebanon.

Devery explained that in today's market students are able to make a choice on whether they want to go into technical training or into formal college education, and are able to select the kind of college they want to enter should they choose that course.

Such decisions are tough ones for high school students to even if the student decides not to go to college, Devery observed.

On the other hand, the credits earned during the summer classroom and college level are put into escrow until the student has completed his high school program and enrolls as a freshman. He then receives full credit for his training.

While there are many advantages of the program, Devery said that perhaps the pre-college "trial" session is among the major ones.

Full information on credits in escrow is available from Devery or the admissions office at McKendree (1-537-4481).

Central Cinema LX to Be Resumed at School

A series of educational films, shown as an alternative to a lunch study period, was developed last semester at Central Junior High School and will be repeated during the spring semester for six weeks, according to C. W. Brown, principal.

Entitled Central Cinema LX to commemorate Central's 60 years of service to public education and to the community, the idea was initiated and developed by June Mills, girls counselor at Central.

The program was operated for seven weeks last semester to provide relevant movies and films of an entertaining and educational nature and to provide the opportunity for a "learn by doing" situation where students are involved.

Teachers were consulted and students worked on posters, ticket making and taking and manning projectors. Films were supplied by Coordinated Youth Services, Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. and the school's audio visual and multi-media department.

gram while 32 decided against it.

Most popular among the films was "LSD: The Acid World," followed by "Teenage Marriages," "Marijuana" and "How to Watch Pro Football."

Students suggested having more movies rather than filmstrips, movies on sports, drugs and comedy and movies on interpersonal relations, while some said they liked the program the way it was.

Of those wishing to participate, 29 wanted to handle tickets, 16 to run projectors, 13 to select films, 10 to make announcements and seven to make posters.

Earn Pharmacy Honors

Miss Judith A. McClew, 1615 Clark Ave., and Floyd L. Waitlatitis, 36 Steelcrest Lane, have been placed on the dean's list at the St. Louis College of Pharmacy for having achieved an academic grade average of "B" or better during the fall semester.

'Y' Swim-A-Thon Set For Friday, Saturday

A Swim-A-Thon for fitness and funds will be held from 6 p.m. to midnight Friday and noon to midnight Saturday at the YMCA.

It is a project to raise funds for the YMCA's World Service Program and for the local "Y." Members and non-members may participate as swimmers or sponsors.

Swimmers will obtain sponsors who will agree to pay a certain amount for each length of the YMCA's 20-yard swimming pool he or she swims in 15 minutes. Contributions are tax deductible.

Four or five students from each study period plus three or four student helpers, or about 130 per day, attended the programs on a voluntary basis. One program was offered each week.

Titles of filmstrips and movies were "Failure: A Step Towards Growth," "A Day They Lived Happily Ever After" on understanding teen-age marriages, "How to Watch Pro Football," "Values for Teenagers," "The Alienated Generation" on life among the hippies, "LSD: The Acid World" and "Marijuana."

Results of a student poll showed that 34 thought the program was very good, 59 as good, nine as poor and four as very poor. Sixty-nine wanted to be actively involved in the pro-

Tret Fury's Solo Album Instills Deep Emotions

By JUDY HUGG
Copley News Service

It's a relief and a pleasure to hear Tret Fury's first solo album. A relief because she hasn't fallen into the ethnic triteness of the quite often boring folk singers and a pleasure because she brings a gentleness with her that is hard to find these days.

Appropriately, the debut album is titled simply "Tret Fury" and is on the UNI label. It contains 10 poetic images set to music, eight of which Tret penned herself.

Originally from Marquette, Mich., Tret is a very talented, self-taught guitarist, songwriter and singer.

"My brother bought a guitar and I just sort of picked up on it," she recalled. "I started out playing mainly Judy Collins, Bob Dylan and Peter, Paul and Mary folk songs. That was about eight years ago. But it wasn't until two years ago that I really got into the writing end of things."

Although not widely known as yet, Miss Fury has worked the coffee house and college circuits throughout California. She also teamed up with Spencer Davis on his "Mousetrap" LP, playing both six- and 12-string guitars on most of the LP's cuts.

Recognizing her potential, Davis urged her to work on her musicianship, which has given her a unique picking style and bottleneck playing that puts her up with the best in the country. If you can pull yourself away from the lyrics on her new album, you'll find some really outstanding guitar work weaving a web of simple yet forceful melodies.

However, Tret's strong point lies in her ability to touch emotions, simply but deeply with her lyrics.

"Actually most of my songs are like character sketches," she explained. "Of people that I basically just invent, yet they all stem from my own personal experiences. You might say they are character sketches from my own different personal lives."

Although for years an "interpreter of other people's songs," she now finds it more enjoyable singing her own material since

Degree Requirements Completed by Student

Miss Janice Seymour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Seymour, 3404 Lydia Lane, has been named to the dean's list for the first semester at Murray College in Jacksonville, Ill.

Miss Seymour has completed requirements for a bachelor of arts degree in elementary education. She served as treasurer of the Student Education Association, was a resident assistant in Kathryn Hall, and was a member of the college band, concert choir and Phi Nu service society.

she "can feel it more because it's an extension of myself."

In order to get more out of her music, Tret has learned to play the violin, bass, blues harmonica, dulcimer and the piano.

"Playing the piano is changing my style a little bit because it's a totally different instrument," she said. "It also serves as a completely new writing tool for me. It's hard to explain, but I'm getting into writing a little more up tempo material with the piano. Usually I tend to write soft ballad type stuff but now I'm doing things with the piano that a band could do. And eventually I'd like to find a backup band to play with me."

At the moment, Miss Fury prefers to play for the large college audiences because she says that basically they are more into the lyrics of a song than just the music. She also gets a stronger feedback and high energy response from the college groups, even though her songs are poetic images instead of protest songs.

When asked why there wasn't more girl singers around, she rephrased the question into: "I wonder why there aren't more girl musicians. Actually there are many female vocalists around but there definitely aren't enough girl musicians around."

"I think that is changing a little now. Most girls just don't have the courage or feel that they belong in this field. It seems the home and the kitchen were where they were to stay, but take Fanny for example, it's the best all-girl rock 'n' roll band to ever come along and they are showing others that it can be done."

It's hard to say how many others can make it, but take a good long listen to cuts like "San Francisco Song," "Joseph," "What's Gonna Happen Comes," "Third Time Around" and "Laughing Holidays" and you'll see that this pretty little chirp is here to stay.

Farm youths wishing to obtain an education for a career in agriculture or an agriculturally related occupation will be considered for the scholarship on the basis of scholastic record, financial need and participation in agricultural activities, such as FFA and 4-H.

Gov't. Career Day Held at McKendree

Government Career Day was held at the McKendree College campus Wednesday.

Students had an opportunity to talk about government employment with representatives from the Federal Job Information Center in Chicago; U. S. National Forest Service in Harrisburg; Department of Health, Education and Welfare in Chicago; Social Security Administration in East St. Louis and Alton, and Civilian Personnel Office at Scott Air Force Base.

Dean of Students Tom Darrah explained that the Government Career Day is an opportunity for the students to get information about government careers "straight from the horse's mouth," rather than any job placement session. The government has become the nation's biggest employer, and students who soon will be in the job market need to know the wide range of occupations that this embraces, Darrah said.

Students who rank in the top 10% of their graduating classes often can go right into governmental jobs, and no civil service tests are required. Several McKendree graduates have gone this route, Darrah said. The dean of students office last year inaugurated a job counseling and placement service as part of the college's emphasis on attention to the needs of each student.

Student Career Course Offered Eighth Graders

A course entitled Student Career Development will be offered to selected eighth grade students in Granite City Junior high schools, according to the program approved Monday night by the Board of Education.

As recommended by junior high principals students will be selected on the basis of interest, faculty recommendation, attendance, citizenship and grades. Pupils selecting the program will use it as one of their two electives.

Guidance personnel will select and assign the students interested in the course which will be offered on a semester basis only. The assignment and timing of the subject will be determined according to the availability of facilities and staff.

The course will involve introduction to school procedures and policies, tact and personal appearance, telephone techniques, training in the use of office machines and equipment, library equipment and assisting the school nurse, and development of personal responsibility in the day-to-day routine of school life.

Grades will be given on a pass-fail basis. The subject will be written on the student's permanent record.

Wayne Peterson, 415 Melrose Ave., reported Monday that after 5 p.m. Feb. 15, someone entered the unlocked storeroom at his home and took an assortment of frozen foods valued at $85 and a box of tools valued at $35.

'Ice Capades' Trip On Sunday, March 18

A total of 90 seats will be made available through the Granite City Park District for the Sunday, March 18 "Ice Capades" show at the St. Louis Arena.

Local patrons will depart by chartered bus at 4:30 p.m. the day of the show from the Wilson Park ice rink, arriving at the Arena in time for the 6 o'clock performance.

Reservations, including the cost of tickets, must be received at the Wilson Park office by March 9, Harold Brown, park superintendent, said today.

He cautioned those interested in attending to make reservations as quickly as possible, citing the disappointment expressed by many would-be patrons who found all tickets had been purchased for earlier shows. Additional information may be obtained by calling the park office at 877-3083.

Total cost of the tickets and roundtrip transportation will be $4.15 per adult and $3.15 for children up to 18 years old. Seating obtained by the park district will be located in the arena circle, affording an excellent view of the show, Brown said.

Pontoon Beach Ticket Would Serve Without Pay, Emphasize Drainage, Parks, Streets

Village board members serving without salaries, an all-out effort to improve drainage, parks and streets are among the pledges made by candidates of the Village Improvement Party, voiced during an interview with Press-Record newsmen.

Making the pledges at the meeting were Floyd David Moss, candidate for village board president; Mrs. Corrine Scroggins, candidate for clerk and wife of the present village board president; Otto Kreher; Raymond L. Gaudette Jr., candidate for trustee; and F. L. Clinard, campaign coordinator.

Trustee candidates Paul Bennett and Donald C. Rea were unable to attend.

Moss said the VIP candidates, if elected, will serve without the per diem pay now paid village officials.

He said the 500 per meeting saved would be placed in a special account for parks and playgrounds in the village and would total about $2,800 per year.

"We believe that, at this rate, one small park or two small playgrounds can be placed into operation within two years," he asserted.

The candidates agreed that all of their programs can be initiated without having additional taxation in the village.

There presently is no real estate tax for village purposes; funds are collected through utility taxes, business licenses, state motor fuel taxes, sales taxes and revenue sharing.

Moss added that one tax may be removed from the residents of the Quiet Valley subdivision who are paying a utility tax on water which other village residents are not required to pay.

"We believe that even if this tax can be legally assessed, it is a discriminatory tax that is unfair and unreasonable," Moss said. He pledged to have the tax repealed immediately if his party is elected.

He also said that if a tax increase should be necessary while his party is in office, citizens would be given an opportunity to vote on the new tax.

"There is a lot of state and federal money around for us to use, but no one has bothered to examine what is available. I helped the city of East St. Louis prepare grant applications last summer and I know how to do it and what is available," the candidate added.

He indicated that grant funds can be used to improve drainage conditions in the village.

"Drainage has precedence over everything," Gaudette commented. He said the village has already appropriated funds for some drainage improvements but the money has not been spent.

The candidates pledged efforts to provide storm-water sewers to the Viceria, Fontainebleau drives area, Georgetown and residents along Route 111.

Some homes are flooded by runoff water from Highway 111 and Interstate 270.

"We feel we can work with the state and have them do their share, since they are causing much of the flooding," Gaudette said.

Discussing road financing, Moss said the village has the resources to improve hard-surface roads throughout the village.

"Every street will be paved over a period of several years," he said. He related that the village now has more than $40,000 in interest-bearing accounts. He said such money can be used for the roads, which he estimated would cost between $35,000 and $7,000.

It was said that permanent roads will be impractical until drainage problems are solved. Otherwise roads could be damaged by water and by shifting bases, the candidates noted.

"We want to emphasize that contracts for all road paving will go to the lowest bidder. Our opponents seem to want Nameoki Township to do the work."

"We will accept an offer from the township only if it is the lowest bid we receive," Moss said.

He pledged a complete review of all village departments.

including the police department, to see that all are operating at maximum efficiency.

The candidate indicated the VIP Party is in agreement with the present board on the need for a village hall.

He said that, if elected, he will continue efforts to purchase the building now being used by the village.

"A complete financial statement will be published by newspaper annually and all sources of revenue and all expenditures will be made public," Moss said.

He disclosed that all campaign funds for the political party are being raised by dances.

A dance in December netted $500 which was used to pay part of $412 in printing costs and all of a $50 mailing bill, he reported.

Another dance is scheduled Saturday, March 10, in the Long Lake Fire Hall in the village. Tickets are $4 per person in advance and $5 per person at the door, Moss said.

A mail campaign will consist of sending four newsletters to every resident of the village explaining the party's platform. In addition, candidates will personally contact all residents and will distribute a brochure on the party candidates and platform, Moss told the Press-Record.

"We want strict law enforcement, including tavern hours, to make Pontoon Beach a community we all can be proud of," Clinard said.

Moss pledged, "If we are elected, we will be a working board."

"As mayor, I will not be afraid of physical work if that is what is necessary to clean up the village."

"We are not running for salaries or rewards. It's our lives and our children's lives we are trying to improve. I am sure we want the same things as every other family in the village," Moss concluded.

AUTOS IN ACCIDENT

Autos driven by Monte L. Lyons, 3289 Westchester Drive, and Bessie M. Galiker, 138 Briarcliff Drive, were in an accident at 1:15 p.m. Monday at 24th Street and Madison Avenue.
